BUS DRIVER CRUSHED TO DEATH

TO ATTEMPT ROUND TRIP NEW YORK-PARIS FLIGHT

Byrd Plans To Start Flight To Paris On Friday

Fokker Monoplane Being Put In Shape For Atlantic Hop

WILL ATTEMPT TO MAKE ROUND TRIP

To Follow Different Route From That Taken In Recent Flights

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 15.—With Commander Richard E. Byrd returning from Winchester, Va., tomorrow, mechanics at Roosevelt field today were putting the final touches on the Fokker monoplane America for a probable take-off on the hop to Paris early Friday

Though no official announcement has been made, it is understood at the field that Commander Byrd and his associates, Bert Acosta and Lieutenant George Neville, will tarry in Paris only long enough to refuel before starting the return journey.

Scientific Flight

In contrast with the flights of Lindbergh and Chamberlin and Levine, the journey of the America will be primarily scientific. The most economical engine speeds from a fuel standpoint, utilization of favorable wind currents and the use of the radio are some of the things to be studied.

Commander Byrd's course, moreover, will differ from that taken on the preceding trans-Atlantic flights. His route will be "flatter" and consequently somewhat longer, but will be nearer the steamship lanes.

Radio station WODA at Paterson, N. J., will endeavor to keep in touch with the "America" through the entire flight, furnishing government weather reports, ship news bulletins and a musical program.

Genkinger And Davies Declare Bridge Is Need

Members of city council, Genkinger and Davies, reiterated their intention of standing pat for bridges at North and Lawrence streets.

They claim they have studied the situation and the only hope of alleviating the present situation is construction of the bridges, adding that though traffic has increased bridges have not, during the last 50 years.

They believe that, as the city pays considerable of the taxation the city is entitled to some returns, especially when needed. Some prominent citizens, however, oppose the location of the bridges.

Some of the opponents to the Lawrence and North Mill streets bridges favor a viaduct from Lincoln avenue, swung across the lowlands, Neshannock river and P. R. R. tracks, touching at a point near Walnut street, in the Croton section.

Genkinger and Davies believe that the North and Lawrence street bridges should come first and the viaduct later. They said today they are willing to hear the voice of opponents to their plans any time.

Soldier Needs Blood Transfusion

Volunteers Are Asked To Give Him Chance Needed To Recover Health

At the New Castle hospital, is Andrew Picetelli, who did his bit in the World War and did it well. But now he is down and out on account of a sickness that he has developed recently and the attending physicians say that the only possible remedy for his condition is a blood transfusion.

If there is some kind hearted person in the city, who on examination is found to have the required type of blood for the transfusion, and who is willing to give the poor young World War veteran a chance to recover his health, it is asked that they get in touch with Peter Mancini, who makes the blood transfusion tests at the hospital, some time Thursday.

It may mean the saving of a human life by doing this now and not waiting.

To Restore Teaching Of German Language In Schools Of City

After an absence of nine years from the curriculum of the New Castle Senior high school, the German language will be reinstated beginning with the term of 1927-28. Action to this end was taken Tuesday evening, June 14 when the New Castle school board met for its regular monthly session.

In 1917 the German language was taken out of the curriculum here by action of the school board.

The action restoring the language to the cirriculum, came as the result of a recommendation by Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of schools. In his recommendation he said:

"It is recommended that the German lauguage be offered as a part of the curriculum of the senior high school beginning with September, 1927.

"In my judgment no legitimate reason exists at this time for the exclusion of German from our curriculum, and there are many reasons why a knowledge of the language and literature of that nation would be useful to our students, especially those who expect to pursue technical courses. The war is over; let us express the spirit of peace toward our former enemies."

There was little discussion upon the recommendation, the vote to reinstate the language being unanimous.

New York Continues To Make Most Of Lone Eagle's Visit

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, June 15.—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh's "home folks" from Minnesota claimed him today, and "Lindy" gladly gave up the idea of flying to Washington to bring back his beloved Spirit of St. Louis.

Happy Reunion

There was a happy reunion when Minnesota's official delegates called this morning at the Park avenue apartment where the flyer and his mother, Mrs. Evangeline Lodge Lindbergh, are staying. The delegation arrived in an automobile, bearing the legend, "Little Falls, Lindbergh's home town". They had driven in this car from Little Falls, Minn., to Washington, and thence to New York.

The delegation included A. L. Grime of Little Falls, said to be the youngest mayor in Minnesota, who attended high school with "Lindy"; Dr. C. H. Longley, who did dental work for the flyer, and Kenneth Martin, another schoolmate.

Tonight Lindbergh appears at the boxing bouts at the Polo grounds, where he will see his old friend, Ace Hudkins, Lincoln, Neb., "wildcat", in action. He will also attend part of a Ziegfeld theater performance and at midnight will attend the Nungesser-Coli benefit performance at the Rox theater.

Mother to Leave

His mother, Mrs. Evangeline Lindbergh, will bid New York farewell at five o'clock this afternoon. She will take a train for St. Louis, accompanied by members of that city's reception for Lindbergh committee. St. Louis plans a great reception for Lindbergh upon his arrival there after his hop-off from New York Friday in the Spirit of St. Louis.

Arrest Youth After Accident

Pursuit On Youngstown Road Results In Arrest Of Charles Rigby

ACCUSED OF BEING CAUSE OF CRASH

Charles Rigby, a young man formerly of this city, but now residing in Youngstown, was landed in the Lawrence county jail following an automobile smashup, and an exciting chase on the New Castle-New Bedford road, Tuesday evening, ending in Rigby's capture about a mile beyond the harbor.

Rigby is under parole from the Lawrence county court on a former charge. This morning a process was served upon him in jail by Deputy Sheriff William Reynolds in which he is charged with violating his parole by operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor, and with failing to stop and render assistance, following an accident.

According to the story told this morning, Rigby was driving at a high rate of speed on the improved road near the Harbor. He was coming south toward the city. Gregory Goskowski of Wampum, was driving north, when he alleges that Rigby hogged the road and drove into him, wrecking his car. Rigby's car shot over into a fence, but he got it righted and drove away without stopping to render assistance to Goskowski. Rigby is said to have then driven around by a dirt road and back to the New Bedford road, heading for Youngstown.

Several persons secured the number of his car, and Parole Officer Jack Dunlap, who happened to be driving with his family near the scene of the accident, secured the number and started in pursuit, along with several others.

One of the pursuers, named An-

State Executive Mansion Is Being Prepared For Wedding On Thursday

By SALLY JAY SHERMAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 15.—Political and business affairs of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania today were pushed into the background, as the popular spotlight was centered on Miss Mary Miller Fisher, the governor's only daughter, and her approaching marriage to Henry Tatnall Brown of Moorestown, N. J.

The executive mansion, soon to be resplendent in ferns, smilax and ascension lilies, was no man's land today, as last minute preparations for the ceremony were completed.

Tomorrow afternoon, in the alcove of the executive mansion drawing room, the Rev. J. C. Pinkerton, pastor of the United Presbyterian church of Indiana, Pa., will officiate at the nuptials. However, he, the governor, and the groom, Henry Tatnall Brown, were on the outer rim of the spotlight today.

The ladies reigned supreme in the executive mansion. While decorators hung the massive walls of the governor's home in gold and yellow, little "Miss Mary," as she is known to mansion attaches, stepped from behind the enveloping curtain of officialdom which has doled out to the press the details of the event, and happily displayed her trousseau to her friends.

Miss Fisher was careful to heed the warnings of Boyd Hamilton in charge of "releasing" a description of the trousseau to the newspapers, and hence ladies of the press were officially barred.

The first lady of the commonwealth, careful to observe all the formalities of political officialdom, nevertheless is an intensly human little girl and as such must exercise an age old prerogative on the eve of her wedding and display her

Report Flares Are Seen In Wilds Of Canada

(International News Service)

QUEBEC, Que., June 15.—Arrangements are under way by the Quebec provincial government today to despatch a plane to the wild and desolate mountain district near St. Germaine township north of the Saguenay river where signal flares were reported Sunday evening, leading to believe in some quarters that they have been set off by Chas. Nungesser and Francois Coli, the French aviators who disapepared without a trace while trying to make a non-stop flight from Paris to New York.

The district where woodsmen saw the signals is about 200 miles northeast of Chicoutimi.

Edouard Lavoie a civil engineer of Chicoutimi, told local officials that the flares were visible in St. Germaine township. The location he described would put them about 60 miles west of Newfoundland.

Quebec provincial officials were keenly interested in the news and immediately took steps to send out a plane that had previously been used to search the north shore as far as Belle Isle for traces of the missing French fliers.

MONTREAL, Que., June 15.—Surveyors in the Grand Caribonka river district are believed by Avila Bedard, assistant director of the provincial forestry department, to be responsible for flares seen in the direction of Cape Enternite mountain Sunday night. Two land surveying parties are operating in that district. Although the department does not believe the distress signals came from Nungesser, 50 men have been despatched to search the mountain top and places will also be sent. It is thought possible Nungesser and Coli may have fallen in with a surveying party or with Indians who are on their way south with their spring catch of furs.

Presidential Party Nearing Unofficial Summer White House

South Dakotans Plan For Great Reception To Coolidge And Party

Will Reach Black Hills Site Late Today After Long Trip From Washington

BY GEORGE E. DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

ABOARD THE PRESIDENTIAL SPECIAL ENROUTE TO THE BLACK HILLS, NEAR HURSON, S. D., June 15.—Out where the west begins, President and Mrs. Coolidge were traveling today, steadily nearing the rugged mountain fastness which will know them for the next three months.

Undulating fields of wheat stretching out to the horizon, a monotonous panorama of grass and sky, greeted the executive this morning as he sat on the observation platform of his special train awaiting the arrival at Pierre where he will be greeted formally to this last of American frontiers.

Already Mr. Coolidge has exceeded by some three hundred miles his farthest previous venture wastward since his White House incumbency and in establishing a summer White House in the Black Hills of South Dakota he is establishing a precedent. Never before has a president gone farther than Ohio for any prolonged stay.

The pararie settlements turned out in their bravest to see the presidential special. Occasions when it has been their privilege to view a chief executive in the flesh have been few and far between.

To Extnd Welcome.

At noon, Governor Bulow will extend the official welcome of the state, the train being scheduled to stop at Pierre long enough for appropriate ceremonies. Then, on the train will climb to Rapid City, outpost of the state game lodge which was selected from half a hundred more effete sites in other states to house the Coolidges during the summer.

Before the day is over, President and Mrs. Coolidge will have seen cowboys and Indians, something existing in the eastern mind only as characters of dime novel thrillers and neighborhood-house movies, in fact, a group of those almost mythological gentlemen who attend to the wants of western steers are due to pick the presidential party up at Hermosa and escort them to the game lodge. Also it is whispered the mayor of Pierre has passed out bandanas and holsters to some of the citizenry who own riding mounts.

Last night, in line of his anticipations regarding the wild and wooly west, Mr. Coolidge witnessed a private showing in his car of the screen film "The Rough Riders."

Tomorrow's a day I have marked off in red for a young lady's birthday date, a charming young miss who calls me her friend, and her age will be just eighty eight. Her hair has been silvered for many a year, but there's youth in her eye and her smile, and her voice is a song that is musical still, and her soul knows no envy or guile. She's been gathering friends since the day she was born and they number far more than I know, and tomorrow her room will be filled all the day, with the folks that are going to go. She's old in her years but her soul still is young, she's a marvel this old friend of mine, and I wish her the best that my mind can conjure, the weather is calm, sixty nine.

(International News Service)

READING, Pa., June 15.—Max Hassel, Reading's millionaire ex-newsboy, and his two co-defendants, former State Policeman Paul W. Chambers and Fred A. Marks, were found not guilty of charges of bribery and conspiracy to violate the prohibition laws with the reading of a sealed verdict in the Berks county court today by Judge John Stevens. The verdict ended the third attempt by the state to convict the men of violation of the liquor laws.

The jurors reached a verdict after four hours deliberation. The verdict was sealed and delivered to Judge Stevens at the opening of court today.

Town Talk

New Castle boasts of a baseball representation from both the police and garbage departments of the city, apparently the mail carriers of the post office are not going to be outdone for they were having a warming up period for some of their promising pitchers and catchers in the rear of the post office around noon today.

If he's in love and takes his pen in hand, what astonishes the jury is that a man could get so silly in a mere sixty years.

Police Chief Declares No Jay-Walking Drive Is Contemplated Here

Chief of Police Henry Dysart today said he does not contemplate enforcement of an ordinance passed May 27, 1921, which makes "jay-walking" punishable by a fine of five dollars and costs of suit.

The ordinance, introduced by Councilman Fike, May 27, 1921, was passed May 27, 1924, and says, in part:

"Any pedestrian who shall cross or be in any street where safety zones are provided in accordance with this ordinance, outside of the said safety zones as marked, shall, upon conviction, be subject to a fine not exceeding five dollars and costs of suit."

Dysart today reiterated his statement that it is impossible to regulate pedestrian traffic without causing a blockade of motor vehicle traffic.

He does not believe, as do many other persons, that jay-walking interferes with traffic seriously saying: "We haven't had many accidents as a result of jay-walking."

Recently council was told that two young children had been struck within 24 hours in the vicinity of Croton avenue and East Washington street and a charge was made by a business man that "foot traffic" was not given a chance.

Dysart says "there is no use in trying to do much until we get some bridges to do away with traffic of automobiles in East Washington street." He intimated regulation of pedestrian traffic will then come.

FATALITY OCCURS ON BUTLER AVENUE ABOUT MIDNIGHT

snapping on a curtain at the rear of the bus, when struck by the car of Elgie McCandless of Butler, being pinned between the two machines and his body terribly mangled. Lieutenant Harper ordered the body to the Kelley Morgue, pending action of Coroner J. P. Caldwell, who was notified and assumed charge in a short time. McCandless was taken into custody and removed to the city jail.

Phil R. Galloway, 11914 Mt. Overlook avenue of Cleveland, O., in a statement to the police, following the accident stated that he and eleven other men were returning from Pittsburgh to Cleveland, O., in the Reo Speedbus of the United Driveway company of Cleveland, which makes a business of delivering new automobiles, and of which bus Fred Beebe was the driver.

Stop To Fix Tire

The bus was traveling west on Butler avenue, when about 11 o'clock a flat tire developed and the machine was pulled into the curb in front of 1061 Butler avenue, for the purpose of fixing the tire.

After the tire had been repaired, all the others with the exception of himself and Beebe, according to Galloway were in the bus. They were in the act of fastening down the curtain in the rear of the bus and which covers the glass door at the rear of the bus and makes it impossible for any of the occupants of the car to see anything occuring in the rear of the machine.

Beebe, according to Galloway, was on the left hand side near the roadway, while he was on the right hand side near the curb. Neither noticed the approach of the Buick coupe of McCandless, coming toward them at a fast rate of speed, until it hit the rear of the bus, pinning Beebe between the two machines and hitting Galloway on the leg but not injuring him. The car was driven according to Galloway's statement by Elgie McCandless, the man under arrest.

The other men in the bus according to Galloway were Doyt Bricker, Kenneth William Hall, Lawrence O. Hull, Henry Scheffel, A. W. Kelso, Fred P. Chickering Martin Kelley, B. L. Griffiths, J. F. Imhoff, J. Stanley.

Following his arrest, McCandless was examined at the police station by Dr. F. E. Eakin, who found, according to the report made to the police that McCandless is crippled in his right limb, that he appeared to be irrational, that his mind was not clear, that his talk was thick and not plain and that his muscular control seemed poor. The doctor concluded his statement by saying that he believed McCandless was under the influence of liquor. McCandless sustained a slight wound on the mouth and was also slightly bruised up in the accident.

At the city jail this morning, McCandless stated that he was 41 years of age and that he was a former county treasurer of Butler county and present chairman of the Butler County Republican committee.

He stated as follows concerning the accident: "I was coming from Butler to New Castle. I would say the speed at which my machine was traveling was between thirty and thirty-five miles an hour. It seemed to me that the man stepped out in front of my machine at the point of the accident. It's terrible to think of taking a human life, in this manner."

Following the accident, the United Driveway company at Cleveland was notified and J. H. Stark, Jr., vice-president of the concern arrived early this morning and took the bus and the other men back to Cleveland. He stated that Beebe had a mother and a son in Cleveland, O.

The McCandless car which was damaged to some extent has been removed to the Keystone garage.

Many Auto Accidents Reported To Police

Numerous automobile accidents were reported to the police Tuesday afternoon and evening and this morning. None of them were of a serious nature.

Butterfield of Erie, Pa., going in the same direction and trying to go between the curb and the street car, cut to the left and hit and damaged the machine of W. R. Palmer of 630 1-2 East Washington street. Mr. Butterfield claims the Swan machine forced him into the other machine.

Tony Lukatch of R. D. No. 9 reported that he was going south on South Mill street at Taylor street, when a machine bearing Pennsylvania license 05387, going north and making a left-hand turn onto Taylor street, hit and damaged his machine.

F. A. Pinkerton of Edenburg, R. D. No. 7, reported that his machine was parked on Croton avenue near the Universal garage, when a car bearing license No. 66-606, parked in his rear, in driving out from the curb broke the bumper off his car.

Sam Tomlinson, driver of the McCready Ice Company, reported that he was driving a team of horses attached to his wagon from East street onto Washington street when McCoy Auto Wrecking Company's car ran into and injured the lead horse.

Charles Barnicot of the Bleakley block reported that he was driving north on South Mill street and turning into Taylor street, when his machine was in a collision with another car bearing Pennsylvania license 459-878.

May Need More Teachers For City Summer School

According to Dr. C. C. Green, Superintendent of city schools, more teachers may have to be added to the staff of summer school teachers on account of the crowded classrooms at the sessions in the Benjamin Franklin Junior high school.

Mr. Green states that the students number well over one thousand.

A class at the summer session is not organized unless they are twelve enrolled in one particular subject. These students must secure the recommendation of the principal of their respective school, before they are admitted. Both those making up work failed and those taking advance work must have the recommendation.

According to Dr. Green, the swimming pool is operating for the students. It is being operated under the direction of William Klee, boys physical director at the Senior High school. All students wanting to swim are allowed to do so.

Prof. James M. Hughes is principal of the school.

The summer school commenced on Monday of this week and will continue for six weeks, between the hours of 8:30 a. m. and 12 noon.

Found Not Guilty Under Court Order

In the case of the commonwealth against Samuel Roberts charged with possessing liquor the jury returned a verdict of not guilty under the direction of the court.

The jury went out on the matter of costs and placed them on the county.

The testimony showed that the liquor was found near Robert's premises, but there was no evidence to show that it belonged to him or that he knew anything about it.

STATE EXECUTIVE MANSION PREPARING FOR WEDDING

"pretties," the frills and fur belows so dear to the hearts of June brides.

Here must be drawn the official curtain. The governor's gift to his daughter, a shiny new sedan, with the initial "B" to signify "Brown" on the license plate, may be discussed, as well as the hundreds of pieces of silverware which have been given to the bride—but the trousseau is "for official release."

The rehearsal is to be this evening, it is announced. This will follow an elaborate dinner given by the governor for the wedding party and the out of town guests and this in turn, will be preceded by a luncheon given at Foxlea, the summer home of Mrs. John E. Fox and a tea for the bridal party and guests given by Miss Mary Lee Keith, daughter of Dr. John A. H. Keith superintendent of the state department of public instruction.

Heads Up!

THE carelessly dressed man reminds one of a tattered hymn book—between covers, quite worthy no doubt, but who wants to pick it up? The English have a quaint old saying which runs "lax in your gaiters; laxer in your gait." The higher the esteem in which a man holds Correct Dress, the "higher he holds his head." There is no more buoyant bracer.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE IN THE BLACK HILLS

WHEN President Coolidge reaches his temporary home in the Black Hills of South Dakota he will come nearer to being isolated than any president we have had since the government was instituted.

The white house staff goes with him, of course, and all the facilities possible for continuing the work of administering the affairs of the nation will be installed. But aside from the single wire from the president's lodge to Rapid City, most of the news will have to be conveyed to that centre of information by automobile. He will be in truth in the "great outdoors" of the West and those privileged to meet him there will be faced by what those of the East would consider an adventure.

The summer home of the president will be in great contrast to Swampscott and Paul Smith's in the mountains of New York. The seat of government will be farther west than ever before in the country's history. But it will give Mr. Coolidge a complete change and the sort of recreation to which he is richly entitled. Also it will enable the American public to learn something of the geography and history of their own land. In a word, the Black Hills will be placed upon the map. Some fanciful writers have spoken of the movement of the capital as the meeting of the east and the west. If this be true, it will be good for both sections; it will be a reminder that the chief executive is the president of the entire country and not of any particular part of it.

Incidentally, it will recall the fact that the man who sits in the white house has to have a broad mind and a comprehensive vision. Being president of the United States is a little more complex than is generally understood. Different sections have their own problems and their own points of view. It is not possible to please everybody, and the successful executive is the man who endeavors to do the greatest good for the greatest number.

CITY SOLICITOR'S SUGGESTION

AT THE meeting of the city council on Tuesday, City Solicitor Robert M. White made a report to council in which he urged the purchase of property along the Neshannock creek, at what would be the extension of South Mercer and Lawrence streets.

Mr. White said that the price at which the property could be purchased was reasonable.

While there is little questioning of the statement as to the price for the property, the question that arises in the minds of the people of New Castle at the present time, is that of why the land is to be purchased. There is no approved plan for the erection of a bridge at this locality and present indications are that such a project would have much opposition in the city.

It is the contention of those favoring this bridge that it would be a means of eliminating traffic congestion on Washington street. Here again there is a wide difference of opinion.

It is the belief of many citizens that the erection of another expensive bridge at this location, which would be but a short distance from the South Mill street bridge across the Neshannock, and would bring traffic out onto South Mill street at the end of the present bridge on South Mill street, would not be the remedy that it is claimed for traffic relief.

In case this would relieve traffic, it is argued why not make provision so that the present Mill street bridge can be used, to its full advantage? This could be done, if the entrance to the bridge from South street was widened sufficiently to allow easy approach, it is claimed by some.

South Mill street from Washington street to the bridge is now being repaved, and one street car track laid to replace two that formerly occupied the street, as a means of making less traffic congestion on South Mill street, and giving a good approach to the bridge for traffic from Washington street.

It appears to us that there is no need for haste in the matter of purchasing the property suggested in the recommendation to council by the city solicitor.

The News is interested only in the welfare of the city as a whole and is anxious that whatever is done in the matter of bridges, or viaducts be done in a way that will permanently affect a benefit.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 7:32. Sun rises tomorrow 4:28.

It is easy to get up in the morning, but are you going to do anything worth while after you do get up? Probably not!

We read an account of a big row caused because a telephone directory contained the names of saloons in it's list. It may be that there are people who have a telephone just for the purpose of reaching a saloon so the telephone company has to list the suds parlors. Some people don't even want to see the name "saloon" printed anywhere—and we don't blame them.

We are just entering the most wonderful season of the entire year, the season of roses. We have always thought this season of the year would be the hardest in which to die. Wonderful! Beautiful! Magnificent! Glorious!

An optimist is one who reflects that it's just as easy to shovel snow as to push a lawn mower.

Yesteray "Bob" Weingartner, son of Senator George T. Weingartner, sent us by the hand of his father a half dozen of peonies. Every one was big and of a different color. They are about the handsomest specimens of this wonderful spring flower it has ever been our pleasure to behold. "Bob" makes a specialty of raising poenies and if all he raises are like the specimens he sent us he is highly successful already. We appreciated the gift and it caused quite a sensation when it arrived at the house where the 95 per cent of our family stays part of the time.

One week from tomorrow will be the day on which Mr. Berquist will hold his annual picnic at Cascade Park for the kiddies of New Castle. It will be a big crowd and it will take a mountain of filler. The Hints and Dints man wants to see it the big success it should be. In fact it will be a success if the Hints and Dints Man has to pay the whole bill. Now are you going to help?

Eggs are selling at pre-war prices in some parts of Western Pennsylvania, as low as sixteen cents a dozen being paid by buyers. The price grows some, however, before the eggs reach the larger cities.

Working with people who are unselfish and who are doing things that will benefit all is a pleasure. But just hearing a lot of birds bark all the time and doing nothing that costs them anything gives us a large pain.

The Department of Health of Pennsylvania is going to make an effort to regulate the tourist camps of this state. The health department evidently is not afraid to tackle a big job. The hot dog emporiums may need a look in—or perhaps a smell in would be the right thing to say.

It was discovered in Pittsburgh that after a deaf and dumb beggar was arrested that he could hear. He was not as dumb as he appeared.

You can count yourself clean, provided you never leave rings in the old bath tub.

Many New Castleites live beyond their means, all because of a desire to "impress the neighbors."

Col. Lindbergh is very shy when in the presence of girls and blushes furiously and red. He is probably like all young chaps who are that way, but oh, boy, when they get over that shyness they are regular cutups.

It is the unanimous opinion of about the whole world that Col. Lindbergh is just about all right. His entire conduct so far shows what modesty will do.

Even the wild eyed anarchists want the American flyers to visit Russia. The flyers would make a hit if they went there and made the Russians act and feel like humans.

Four men are already serving life sentences and another is waiting trial for first degree murder for killing an editor in Canton, O. Killing an editor must be a serious offense in that place.

Just think of the waste of money in the sending of the car loads of mail and telegrams to Col. Lindbergh. He will probably not get to see many, if any of them. It was some one's bright idea at the expense of the many.

A Farrell, Pa., man was fatally burned when his corn whisky soaked clothing caught fire. A still is a dangerous thing to have about even by not considering the police.

The farmer had taken up auction bridge as a pastime. "I don't know," he remarked, "but what it is about as hard to get a good hand here as it was on the farm."

The ministry of education in Russia is teaching school children to say "leninday" instead of Sunday; "Sovietday" instead of Monday, and so on, thus making certain that every day in the week will be a red letter day in Russian history.

The best place to live is within your income.

If Lindbergh should be tempted to get a swelled head over the amount of newspaper space he is getting just now he should remember that a few weeks ago a couple of dirty murderers got more than he did.

We are to understand from the court decision in Illinois that Governor Len Small did not steal any money when he was state treasurer. We also understand that Governor Small is paying back to the state $650,000. That must have been a bit of small change that he accidentally put in his pocket.

If anything of that kind was ever well done the execution of 20 people by the Russian soviets was a good job.

For the life of us we can't see why there should be so much fuss over the Democratic presidential nomination. With never a chance in the world for electfon, what's the use.

Our idea of a tough job is that of a rural mail carrier route in the Mississippi valley at the present time.

Some of the valedictorians of the colleges, who are just now commencing life, are in hope they can get some of the jobs Charley Lindbergh has turned down.

Putting some of the movie actresses and actors in prison for a while is liable to interfere badly with their divorce schedules.

When you go on your vacation have the News sent after you. You can get it every day by mail and enjoy all the information about the home folks and the home town while you are away.

Home from a European vacation Senator-elect William S. Vare is planning to spend a summer vacation in the New England states. And he might just as well plan to spend the summer in Florida so far as his senatorial duties are concerned.

It has about come to the point that mufflers on airships are necessary so the people can sleep at nights with the planes flying overhead.

Women's feet are growing larger according to scientists, but then that is just nature taking care of her own. Women need larger feet for they have many more rights to stand on.

The American Bible Society reports sending out 10,000,000 bibles last year. Now we would like to know how many tons of dust has collected on the covers of them by now.

There are some people we know who beat the sustained flight records by being up in the air all the time.

We have yet to find a person who has bought on the easy payment plan who says that it is an easy way to pay.

MARK AS A KID

In an after dinner speech on "Honesty," Mark Twain told this melon-stealing incident of his boyhood:

"I sneaked up to that cart, and stole a melon. I went into the alley to devour it. But I had no sooner set my teeth into it than I paused; a strange feeling came over me. I came to a quick conclusion. Firmly I walked up to the cart, replaced the melon and—took a ripe one!"

In almost every town you will find citizens who couldn't pool $10,000 between them, who are always telling the youth of the land how to get rich.

CHEERFULNESS

If we notice little pleasures
As we notice little pains;
If we quite forget our losses
And remember all our gains;
If we looked for people's virtues,
And their faults refused to see,
What a comfortable, happy
Cheerful place this world would be.

Comic strips are said to be losing some of their popularity, but there will be plenty of them at the New Castle beaches this coming summer, nevertheless.

They say that bobbed hair is easy to take care of. Perhaps it is, but we have noticed that there are 16 times as many hairdressing shops in New Castle as there were in the days before the "crowning glory" went into the discard.

We can remember the days when to speak of a girl having a "high color" meant her natural, rosy cheeks and not the price of her rouge.

In case of wreck in the old days they looked at the steering rods instead of the hip pocket.

A college professor reports his pocket was picked. His loss was an even 50 cents. The guy who pulled the job will look for a plumber next time.

The most absent-minded man in the world lives here. The other day, after disrobing and stepping into the bathtub, he said: "Well, well, what did I get in here for?"

We guess it is for the best that the dead are praised more than the living. Praise can't make fools of the dead.

The hard part isn't being poor, but trying to make ends meet while living as the rich do

New York may not be quite the biggest city in the world—London has 7,400,000 population — but Monday New York was at least the most enthusiastic city in the world.

No man, anywhere, ever had so great a reception as Colonel Lindbergh, so many millions cheering, so many thousands of automobiles struggling for room in the streets.

Imagine the greatest demonstration that you can imagine, multiply it by ten and you will fall short of reality.

* * *

It was a great test for Lindbergh when he started out, barely clearing the Long Island trees, with his heavy load of gasoline, a few days ago.

* * *

A bigger test comes now, when the shouting dies away, and his common sense is called upon to find a place, and his balance, in the great nation that cheers for ten hours, and forgets in a week.

* * *

The millions who saw Lindbergh Monday saw in his face his foreign extraction and Scandinavian blood. He has not been transformed into a "one hundred per cent" automation. That's one reason why he flew across the Atlantic all by himself, instead of going to a drug store to order a nut sundae.

* * *

It is announced that Japan at the Geneva naval conference, will demand an equal ratio with the United States. Japan in fact, claims the right "to more cruisers and other auxiliaries than America," because she has such long trade routes to protect.

* * *

If this country and its government would build the necessary fleets of airplanes and submarines, we could say to other nations, "build battleships and cruisers, to your hearts' content. But keep them away from our coast when you are not friendly."

* * *

If we built as many swift planes as our post office and our great industries could use, and if a few of our great industries, General Motors for instance, and the big locomotive companies would compete with Henry Ford in airplane construction there would be no need to worry about other nations or their floating targets.

* * *

Great industries arranging their planes to serve as pursuit planes and bombing planes, carrying rapid fire guns in war, could give this country absolute protection on a self-supporting basis.

Then the government might drowse along with its battleships, its old-fashioned army and navy dodos, and do no harm.

* * *

Standard Oil of Indiana sets an excellent example to other great industries. Its chairman and board of directors use a three-engine double-control all-metal monoplane built by Ford and invite citizens of consequence to fly with them.

Recently, at St. Joseph, Mo., the "Stanolind," Standard Oil of Indiana's airship, was inspected by 25,000 people, and took up 120 prominent citizens to test the machine.

* * *

A letter just received from Allan Jackson, vice president of Standard Oil of Indiana, gives interesting information.

The oil company at the end of the war began working on gasoline and lubricating oil especially for flying machines such as "would never be the cause of engine failure." Agents were ordered to deliver these products to aviators whenever called on "regardless of expense, distance and time of day."

* * *

And Standard Oil, to help aviators locate themselves in flight, marks in big letters on the roof of all Standard Oil stations the name of the town and will soon have 3,600 towns thus marked.

* * *

Important to Americans who ask, "Does it pay?" is the concluding paragraph of Jackson's letter:

"It may interest you to know that when flying eighty-five miles an hour a three-motored plane carrying eight passengers and two pilots consume about thirty-three gallons of gasoline. With the present cost of aviation gasoline, I figure that the cost per mile per passenger is 1 cent."

* * *

That's less than half the cost of railroad travel, and flying is only starting. Those now living will fly to Europe at $50 or less for the round trip.

Dr. Crane's Editorial

THE SPOKESMAN

Whether the news is accurate or not I do not know. But an item was printed in the press sometime ago to the effect that the White House spokesman was gone.

Just where he was gone the item did not say. He may have died, he may have just melted away. He may have resigned the job or the goblins may have got him. Anyhow, he was reported to be gone.

If this is true it would a calamity. If anybody ever needed a spokesman it is C. Coolidge.

As far as that is concerned, I need a spokesman myself, and am seriously thinking of employing one.

I have often gotten into trouble by talking too much and I do not remember any occasion now when I got into difficulty by talking too little. The trouble would have all been obviated by having an efficient spokesman.

When my wife asks me why I have been out so late I could turn loose the spokesman, whose business it would be to invent excuses beyond my capacity.

When somebody sent me manuscripts or books of poems to look over I could simply pass them on to the spokesman who could explain that on account of rush of business, etc., etc.

If I wanted to say anything and not accept the responsibility for it I could try it out through the spokesman. He would be a sort of feeler for the public reaction. It would be a good deal like dipping your hand in the bath tub to see if the water was warm enough, or if it was too hot.

Not only would the spokesman be of great benefit to me in giving out information to various people that had no business to ask for it, but I would enjoy his society. I could unbosom myself as to no one else. He could take the matter that I confided to him and dose it out to the public with expert tact.

Just how I have gotten along without a good spokesman up to the present time, I do not know.

Perhaps, however, I need a silencer more than a spokesman; that is, some one whose business it is to say nothing, more than somebody whose business it is to say something.

This man would be harder to find, as experts in keeping still are much rarer than experts in talking.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

WE OBEY WISE LAWS.

I wonder how many men and women who write and talk "Obey The Law", follow their own advice. Not many,—probably none. There are too many laws, and it is a human impossibility to obey them all. It is said day after day in the Courts, "Ignorance of the Law excuses no man." The lawyers and the judges in whose mouths are constantly these words, do not know all of the laws. They could not be conversant with the provisions of the more than two million laws upon the Statute Books of the States and the Nation. It is a fact that in obeying one law the citizen may break a dozen.

There are a few good laws in force today in America, and a multitude of bad ones, which are enforced now and then—usually to gratify the hatred of some citizen for some other citizen. There are laws which are called "Dead Letter" laws, laws which the great majority of the citizens have disregarded so long that it is thought they do not exist, but every once in a while one of these laws is invoked, to the hurt and injury of a perfectly unsuspecting individual. It has often been said that a good lawyer is one who does not know the law, but knows where to find it, but every day the busy lawyer is called upon to pass upon a contemplated action by a client, and tell him whether he can legally do it or not, and the lawyer gets lost in the maze of laws. He often tells his client "Better not do it"—if there is any doubt whatever in either the client's or the lawyer's mind concerning the legality of the act.

In the face of this it is worth while to observe that when a good law or ordinance is passed, when modern conditions become such that it is necessary to make certain wise regulations, the citizens, almost to a man, obey these laws and ordinances. This fact can be seen every day in the operation of the "Stop" and "Go" signals which nearly every city in the land has placed in operation. There may be no policeman within several blocks of a street intersection where these signals are operating, yet with the ringing of the bell and the changing of the signal, lines of automobiles come to a halt, and other lines start into motion. Why do the motor drivers obey the signals? Because, to a man, they recognize the wisdom of the regulation.

The point of all this is that the American people are not fundamentally lawless, they are peculiarly law abiding, but our lawmaking bodies fill the Statute Books with such a clutter of ridiculous picayunish, piffling laws that no one gives them a thought.

Just Folks

The Gentle Man.

His life was gentle, and his mind
The little splendors seemed to find.
The baser side of life he saw.
But from the blemish and the flaw
He turned, as if he understood
That none of us is wholly good.

He lived as one who seemed to know
That as the swift days come and go
Clouds blanket skies that should be fair,
Rain is encountered everywhere
And so in every human form
Must blow at times the bitter storm.

As one who loves a garden, he Walked round the world its charms to see.
Not only by the rose he stayed.
The tiniest violet in the shade
On his devotion could depend
To great and low he played the friend.

And as the gardner seems to give
More care to plants which fight to live
So he, with tender regard,
Befriended those whose tasks are hard.
Thus dealing gently, he became
More than a high haughty name.

This was his wealth, that good and bad
Of him some happy memory had.
This was his fame, that high and low
Their love for him were proud to show.
This his success that at the end
Men mourned the passing of a friend.

WHAT IS TRUTH?

It is related that Pontius Pilate, Governor of the Roman Province of Judea, at a certain very famous trial, was precipated into a thoughtful mood when he heard someone mention truth.

"And what is truth?" asked Pilate.

Then, it is said, he turned away, not waiting for an answer. He made shift to get rid of the celebrated cause that was then before him for hearing, and washed hands as a sign that he would have nothing more to do with it.

Pilate was a political appointee, depending upon Caesar, away off in Rome, for his job. I like to think that he was also something of a philosopher, and that he tried to forget his responsibility in the case of the Nazarine who had just been before him, by retiring to his study and pondering this question which he had asked, out in the courtroom, without requiring any answer from anybody.

Pontius Pilate might have thought long and deeply without solving that problem, posed by the question, "What is Truth?" There has been a lot of thinking done about it since his day, and not a little was said and written about it before his time, and still there seems to be no agreement that is generally acceptable as to how we shall determine whether a belief is true or false.

Galileo Galilei, an Italian astronomer, amazed and scandalized the learned world some three and a quarter centuries ago, with a story that the earth moves around the sun. He was accused of denying the ancient Truth that the sun moved around the earth. Galileo's theory prevailed, and for centuries has been taught as the Truth, immutable and indestructable. Now comes Einstein with a theory which says that the sun moves around the earth just as much as the earth moves around the sun, the motion of each being merely relative.

Is Truth again in danger? Well, Pilate's question is still hard to answer, after all these centuries of Progress.

Chamberlin-Levine To Visit Zeppelin Plant

(International News Service)

BADEN, Germany, June 15.—Clarence D. Chamberlin and Charles A. Levine, the record smashing American airmen, who have been resting here following their tumultous reception in Berlin, will have an opportunity today to inspect the great Zeppelin factory at Friedrichshafen.

Chamberlin and Levine planned to motor to Karlsruhe and fly thence to Friedrichshafen where they will be the guests of the Zeppelin officials. Following this ceremony they will go to Frankfort where they will be guests of honor at a banquet this evening.

The airmen were guests at a banquet here last night where they heard themselves acclaimed as brilliant and courageous pioneers of the air.

Chamberlin and Levine now plan to fly to Vienna on Sunday. On Friday they will meet their wives, who are due at Bremen that day on the German liner Berlin.

Chamberlin was much interested in cablegrams from New York quoting his mother as saying she would be willing to fly back to America with him. He did not say whether he would extend an invitation to her to be a passenger, if he decides to fly back in the Columbia.

While at Friedrichshafen Levine planned to consult with Dr. Hugo Eckener regarding his projected trans-Atlantic airline upon which he plans to use Zeppelins.

Jailed For Harboring Sheep-Killing Dog

GROVE CITY, Pa., June 15.—State regulations regarding stray dogs and the housing of unlawful dogs is being enforced here in Grove City and this community by Deputy Higby, of this district, who has been spending the last few days here in an effort to put a stop to such offenses.

As a result of his visit here, Deputy Higby, assisted by Officer Brannon, of the local police force, arrested Nick Burcle, of No. 5 Mine, last Saturday, for harboring a sheep dog. The dog was claimed to have killed several sheep in that vicinity and was still allowed to run at large. The owner was arraigned before Squire Irwin, of this city, and assessed a fine of $100 and costs, which he was unable to pay and was therefore committed to the county jail at Mercer.

Several other local men have been arraigned before the squire for similar offenses and of keeping a dog without a license. Officer Higby states that is his purpose to arrest all dog owners who have not conformed to the law. Several dogs which have been found running at large with apparently no owners, have been disposed of.

Lewis Delivers Talk To Miners At Charleroi, Pa.

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, June 15.—Another big mass meeting of union miners similar to that attended by 15,000 at Charleroi last night will be staged tonight at McDonald, Pa., with John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, the principal speaker.

Lewis told his audience at Charleroi that lower wages is not the remedy for the ills of the coal industry. He said that England resorted to this solution and that conditions there now are worse than before.

Leading business men of the bituminous coal region, Lewis, asserted, favor the union's wage demand as a means of reviving the coal industry and bettering living conditions among the miners.

Tomorrow night a mass meeting will be held in New Kensington and another one at Bridgeville on the following night.

EX-PUGILIST HELD WHEN PAL HE FOUGHT HAS SKULL BROKEN

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., June 15.—A. M. Phillips, 31, Salinesville coal miner, found unconscious on a country road near here after what police say was a fist fight, is believed to be dying in the City hospital.

Sheriff George Wright arrested Edward (Skinny) Bunting, 45, of Wellsville, retired pugilist, who was found near the scene. Bunting was held on suspicion.

Phillips, who occupied a shanty with Bunting, was badly beaten about the head. It was believed his skull was fractured when he fell backward onto the floor of a road bridge, where the fight is alleged to have occurred.

The air problem is much like the one down below. The hardest thing to do up there is to keep still.

New Castle Boy Joins Elihu Club At Yale

PRESTON FLAHERTY RECEIVES HONOR
—Courtesy New Haven Register.

The scene shown above is that which occurred at Yale University, New Haven, Conn., on Thursday, May 19, when John Preston Flaherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Flaherty of Berger Place, this city, was tapped on the shoulder by William Breese Vandergrift of Jacksonville, Fla., and told to go to his room, having been selected as a member of the Elihu Club, one of the four big clubs of that institution, and in which membership is hard to get and highly prized by the recipients. Mr. Flaherty accepted membership in the club. Once a year the juniors are assembled on the field and approximately 60 young men in all, out of a group of hundreds, are selected for membership in one of the four clubs by the seniors, who are members of the various clubs. Mr. Flaherty was tapped on the shoulder and told to go to his room by Vandergrift, who with Flaherty played tackle on the Yale varsity football team last season. The occasion is known as Tap Day by reason of the method in which the selection is made.

CATARRH STARTS WITHIN THE SYSTEM

World's Tonic Combats Its Spread, Clears Up the Congestion and Stops Distress

Many people are unwilling to believe that catarrh has fastened itself upon them and shown itself in some derangement or weakness within the system. Often there may be no apparent reason to suspect the existence of this insidious enemy to health, but nevertheless it gets in its work. Catarrh always comes from some course within the system.

This disease must, therefore, be combatted by systemic treatment in order to eliminate it permanently. Local treatment in the nose and throat may often bring quick relief but it can be only temporary. World's Tonic is so highly praised by catarrh sufferers because it is a systemic treatment for catarrh and not only brings relief from distress but conquers the catarrh within the system and is designed to rid the body entirely of the disease, World's Tonic almost at once relieves the dropping in the throat and discharge from the nose of the poisonous, offensive yellow or bloody pus, and it also quickly stops dryness, huskiness, soreness of nasal passages, pains in head, headache and the like. At the same time, World's Tonic completes its work within the system and has thus brought astonishing results in many cases.

If you suffer from catarrh, have a talk with the druggist. For sale at McKee's, Eckerd's, Paisley's, Smith's and all other real druggists.

Certificates Of Retirement Issued To Penna. Employes

Certificates of retirement to 97 railroad men of the Erie and Ashtabula division are being issued as one of the last acts of J. A. Appleton, superintendent of the division, who leaves tomorrow for his new appointment as superintendent of the Columbus division.

These certificates, which show that the holder has been placed on the honor roll of the company, are very nicely gotten up and are personally signed by the president of the Pennsylvania railroad, W. W. Atterbury.

The custom is just new and these are the first certificates that have been issued. Some of the men who were retired more than 10 years ago will receive one, as well as those retired just the past year. In the future certificates will be issued at the time when any employe is retired.

It's just as well that the South is hopelessly Democratic. Imagine a president going south for the summer.

Experts At Work On Installation Of Great Organ At Cathedral

Workmen Declare Organ Is Finest Of 5,000 Company Has Erected

Massive Instrument To Be Magnificent Addition To Big Auditorium

The pipe organ being installed in the new Scottish Rite Cathedral auditorium is one of great magnitude. Few organs of this size are installed in this section.

The organ is being installed by a corps of experts from the M. P. Moller, Inc., plant, makers of the pipe organ, under the supervision of a foreman of the company, C. E. Hause.

The huge pipes have not yet been put into place but the various pieces of wood, which will be concealed, are being joined together.

The organ will include a piano, a harp, a console and chimes. The piano sets behind the pipes out of the way from the view of the audience. The harp and others do likewise also.

The pipe organ will be run by a twenty horse power motor.

The huge musical instrument is being installed on both sides of the auditorium, a good distance above the stage.

The keyboard or what is known in musical terms as the manuel will be four in number. The organ will play itself if it is necessary. Many organs in this section possess chimes and some have pianos included, but few have as many other musical instruments, like the one being installed at the cathedral.

The manuel of this organ will be a disappearing one, when not needed it can be removed by an elevator-like machine.

There will be five chambers in the organ, the great, the solo, the swell, the choir and the pedal. Each of these renders an important part in the playing of the huge instrument.

There are stixty five stops on the manuel and eighteen on the pedal.

According to one of the experts the organ should be completed by the first of August. This is the finest one his company has installed and they have installed over 5000 organs. The cost of this one will be $65,000.

The late George Greer gave the cathedral the organ shortly before he died.

Two cars were used to bring the parts from the Moller plant in Hagerstown, Md.

Kept 200 Days For Mother; Body Is To Be Buried

POTTSVILLE, June 15.—Today marked the 200th day that the body of Samuel Reading, of Georgia, has been kept in local mortuary. It is in a state of good preservation and has been viewed through the glass of a hermetically sealed steel casket by hundreds of curious people.

The man was killed in an accident in the mines. Shortly after his death a telegram was received from his mother asking that the body be kept until she could reach this city to have a final look upon her son's face.

The woman has never arrived, so the body will be buried with a public funeral Tuesday. Interment will be made in Potter's Field at Schuylkill Haven.

College Men Lead Newspaper Staffs

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 15—That college and university graduates comprise 52 percent of the personnel on the editorial staffs of city newspapers in the United States today as compared with approximately nine percent 25 years ago is indicated by the results of a survey made by University of Pennsylvania here.

In making the survey, men in editorial positions on seventy city newspapers in 31 states co-operated, providing statistics based on a canvass of their respective staffs.

Of the 340 men filling positions as managing editor, chief editorial writer, city editor, news editor or head copyreader on the 70 papers, 218 were found to be college men, the proportion among the managing editors being 68 percent; chief editorial writers 77 percent; news editors 51 percent, and copy desk heads 51 percent.

Oldest Baggage Smasher Is Dead

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., June 15.—After having handled baggage forty-eight years on the Pennsylvania railroad, Albert W. Engel, sixty seven years old, of Grand Rapids has retired.

At nineteen Engel, who was born in Nosendorf, Germany, became a baggage porter for the old Grand Rapids and Indiana railway at Fisher station. In June, 1893, he was promoted to agent, a position he has held since that time.

When he was transferred to the old Union station, four men were employed in the baggage department and the passenger schedule called for fifteen trains daily. This work has increased until at the present time there are sixty employes in the department and the daily schedule contains a list of seventy calls for trains.

Five In One Family, Ill With Typhoid

LANCASTER, June 15.—Five members of one family, father, mother and their three children, have been admitted to a local hospital, all suffering with typhoid fever.

The patients are Mr. and Mrs. Landa Zuirn of near Salunga, and their children, Florence, 9; Landa, Jr., 11, and Samuel 6.

Dr. J. S. Kendig, the family physician, declared there is no occasion for alarm. State Health authorities have been notified and are aiding in an investigation. It is believed that the germs were communicated to the family by a human "carrier," a person capable of spreading the disease although immune to attack.

Gas in the Stomach is Truly Dangerous

Gas, Pain, Bloating and a feeling of fullness after eating are almost certain evidence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach.

Too much acid irritates the delicate stomach lining, frequently causing chronic Gastritis and dangerous Ulcers. Food ferments and sours, forming a gas that distends the stomach and often seriously affects the Heart.

It is genuine folly to neglect such a condition or to treat with artificial digestive aids that cannot neutralize the stomach acid. A better way is to get from your druggist a few tiny tablets of Bisurated Magnesia and take three or four of them after each meal. This famous but simple and inexpensive stomach sweetner and anti-acid can be depended upon to prove its value in less than five minutes. In most instances, relief comes instantly! Pleasant and perfectly harmless to use—Bisurated Magnesia tablets do give wonderful relief in nine out of ten cases. Ask your Doctor or Druggist.

New Castle Man Works On Plane Construction

New Castle has not ben passed up in regard to the airplane enthusiasm sweeping over the country. Several men of New Castle have caught it.

One of these men is Lynn W. Gilkey of 420 County Line street. Mr. Gilkey who is a machinist is interested to a great degree in the development of aviation in this country as well as in this city. He is constructing his plane somewhere on the East Side. A good many people of this city are interested in his plane, it seems, for every evening when Mr. Gilkey works on his plane crowds gather about him Mr. Gilkey, however does not prefer crowds and if he had his way he would not have anyone around.

Mr. Gilkey is constructing the plane himself according to C. N. Bruce of the Bruce Electric company, another aviation enthusiast. Mr. Bruce states that it is a Standard Lincoln sport plane, a model of the "Wasp," which took first prize in all specifications, greatest power, greatest height.

The plane has an Anzani motor, one of great ability. There is only one seat in it, this one being for the aviator himself. The wings, for it is a bi-plane are 20 feet in length. The plane is all-in-all just 17 feet in length.

Mr. Bruce states that Mr. Gilkey is not as yet contemplating any long trips. He will use it for his own pleasure around this city.

The place of constructing the plane will be omitted at the request of one of the men interested in the plane although he stated that it was on the East Side somewhere.

Mr. Bruce stated that the need of this city in the aviation line at the present time is a landing field. He said that there are many fine fields around this city, but to make them suitable for a landing place would involve giving on the part of some persons or person enough money to fix them up.

Mr. Bruce stated that Gilkey's plane schould be completed in about two weeks time providing the work was continued steady on it.

Several men in New Castle started work on planes but gave it up. Gilkey is one of those who continued.

Sound Second Call For Poultry Tour

Plans Made For Poultrymen Tour Of Ohio To Take Place Two Days, June 23 And 24

A second call to Lawrence county poultrymen was sounded by the Lawrence County Agricultural Extension Association for the poultry tour to the Ohio state experiment station at Wooster, O., June 23-24.

Meeting at Hermitage, where the Sharon-Greenville road joins the Mercer-Sharon road, the tour will proceed through Sharon into Ohio where several poultry farms will be visited en route to Portage county, O. The county agent of Portage county will meet the touring poultrymen and guide them in their visit to the farms of his county.

Pioneering in experimental work in the all-mash system of feeding chicks and laying hens and in research work on minerals and practical production has gained the Ohio station a high place among the institutions to which poultrymen turn for the lastest information on poultry problems.

Professor D. C. Kennard, in charge of the experimental work, is recognized by many poultrymen as the most practical research man in the work today. Trained as a chemist, he later became a commercial poultryman and then entered his present field of work. At the station he will explain the poultry work of the institution and explain the findings.

Lawrence, Mercer, Crawford and Venango counties will be represented in the tour. All who are interested and wish to go should notify H. R. McCulloch at the Agricultural Extension office on South Croton avenue without delay so ample hotel reservations may be made.

Since that time he has been in an enfeebled mental condition and unable to look after his affairs. Judge Hildebrand has set June 27 as a time for hearing on the petition.

Railroad Merger Occupies Time Of Commission Members

Impasse Has Been Reached In Proposed Van Sweringen Merger

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 15.—An impasse has been reached in the proposed Van Sweringen railroad merger and the full membership of the interstate commerce commission may be called upon today to straighten out the tangle.

Persistent refusal of O. P. VanSweringen, prime mover in the merger plan to answer questions propounded by Henry W. Anderson, counsel for a group of minority stockholders of the Chesapeake and Ohio opposing the merger, relating to the steps by which he and his brother M. J. VanSweringen and their associates, had acquired control of that road, brought about a situation that may have far reaching effect upon the proposed merger.

As the questions were asked, Herbert Fitzpatrick and Newton D. Baker, counsel for the railroad magnate objected and in each instance were overruled by Chas. D. Mahaffie, finance director of the commission, who is conducting the hearing. Appeal to the full membership was taken by VanSweringen's counsel. If the appeal is granted they will argue at length on the right of the minority group to pry into the various moves made by the VanSweringens to get control of the Chesapeake and Ohio.

They will contend that the only question at issue is the application of the Chesapeake and Ohio to acquire stock control of the Erie and Pere Marquette systems and to issue $50,000,000 of additional capital stock.

"Both were magnificent flights," said De Pinedo, "although lindbergh's was more interesting because it was carried out alone."

Important Meeting Of Scout Executive Men

Vacancies Of Scout Executive Board Filled At Recent Meeting; Program

At the regular meeting of the Scout Executive Board held Monday evening, the vacancy caused by the resignation of C. W. Irwin, formerly Scout Commissioner was read. John Dye, a deputy Scout Commissioner was elected to the office of commissioner. Mr. Dye has already taken charge of and assisted with the installation ceremony held last evening.

The vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Grafton, who has taken up work in Butler and who was formerly chairman of the publicity committee, was read and Charles T. Metzler was elected to fill this office.

A committee was appointed consisting of Dr. W. C. Wallace of New Wilmington, John W. Offutt of Ellwood City and Alfred W. Chilton of New Castle to meet with the committee of Scoutmasters to arrange for a big scout circus to be held in the fall. This is a new adventure for the Lawrence County council but promises to be a big success.

Rev. C. J. Williamson and Prof. James M. Hughes were appointed as a committee to meet with the scoutmasters committee to arrange for a big round-up following camp at which time the boys will demonstrate to the public on some vacant lot in New Castle and Ellwood City, how to pitch camp and carry out the activities of scouting by cooking and camping overnight.

John W. Offutt of Ellwood City and S. Plummer Emery of New Castle were appointed as a committee to arrange for a scoutleaders headquarters to be in the form of a club house. This association has grown to seventy five men and they want a place that they can use as a meeting place and club headquarters.

The new troop at Enon Valley was installed at the Enon Valley Presbyterian church last evening. The following program was carried out: Rev. Harrison Davidson, pastor of the church acted as chairman of the meeting. Rev. Davidson introduced Doctor W. C. Wallace of Westminster College who gave a fine address to the parents. Dr. Wallace told the parents that he had recently made a survey of the college and found that about 60 per cent of his boy students were Boy Scouts. He also told the parents that it was not hard to discover which boys were Scouts as their action and conduct on the campus was outstanding.

Frank F. Fischer was next introduced and with a few very appropriate remarks presented the charter to the troop committee, consisting of J. A. Speerhas, E. P. Rader, Rev. Davidson and Carl Zeh, on behalf of the council. Rev. Davidson, as chairman of the troop committee accepted the charter.

O. P. Fox was next introduced and he gave the boys a very fine talk and presented each scout with his certificate. Jack Dye, the new scout commissioner with appropriate remarks presented the scoutmaster, Dr. Otto Kesel and assistant scoutmastes, Rev. Davidson, with their commissions.

Scout Executive J. Lee Calahan was introduced by Rev. Davidson and outlined the plans of the camp to the parents and Scouts. A fine registration is coming in from this troop. It is expected that this troop will be represented with a 100 per cent attendance at camp.

Rev. Davidson spoke to the parents and Scouts and told how they were going to back up the scouts at Enon Valley and make this one of the best troops in the county.

Tonight at the Shelby Tube Company Auditorium at Ellwood City the new Hungarian Church troop will be installed under the auspices of the Ellwood City District Executive Board. Assistant Scout Executive C. R. Knallay will be in charge.

Public Service Commission Issues Order To Build Wampum Viaduct

Orders from the state public service commission for the construction of the Wampum-Chewton viaduct have been received by Lawrence county and other interested parties in which the county is ordered to furnish materials and build the viaduct, as related in The News several days ago, and the railroads and State Highways Department have been ordered to reimburse the county to the amount of $182,500.

Crawford Completes Annual Inspection Of Rural Routes

Nine Routes, Serving 2,500 Families, Are Toured By Postmaster

CONDITIONS FOUND IN GOOD SHAPE

Territory Covered By Each Route Is Given In This Article

Annual inspection of all the rural routes has just been finished by Edwin W. Crawford, acting postmaster of the New Castle post office.

In the annual inspection, the postmaster goes the entire route with the rural carrier and measures its length, counts the number of boxes and the number of families served by the route.

The length of the routes with the number of boxes and families on each are given as follows: No. 1, 27.4 miles, 354 boxes serving 364 families; No. 2, 26 miles, 389 boxes serving 444 families; No. 3, 25.4 miles, 199 boxes serving 245 families; No. 4, 25.2 miles, 208 boxes serving 219 families; No. 5, 26.1 miles, 163 boxes serving 221 families; No. 6, 28.9 miles, 221 boxes serving 240 families; No. 7, 30.6 miles, 222 boxes serving 264 families; No. 8, 24.5 miles, 163 boxes serving 178 families; No. 9, 28.5 miles, 201 boxes serving 223 families.

Longest Route No. 7

Two or more families are allowed to use the same box provided the owner of the box is willing and permission is obtained from the post office.

Mr. Crawford reports in general that the conditions of the boxes is very good. SON SMASHES AUTO, SIRE ASKS DAMAGES UNDER COURT RULE

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., June 15.—When a father can collect damages as the result of negligence on the part of his son may be decided by the supreme court of Ohio.

The question is involved in the case of Andrew Kopp, Tuscarawas, against L. T. Staneart, Roanoke garage man, in which Kopp seeks $400 damages as the result of his automobile, driven by his son, crashing into Staneart's truck.

A jury recently denied Kopp's claim after Judge Lindsay held that if the son was negligent the father could not recover. The appeal court reversed the verdict on the ground that the father could collect, even though the son was negligent.

Counsel yesterday filed application with the supreme court for a leave to file petition in error.

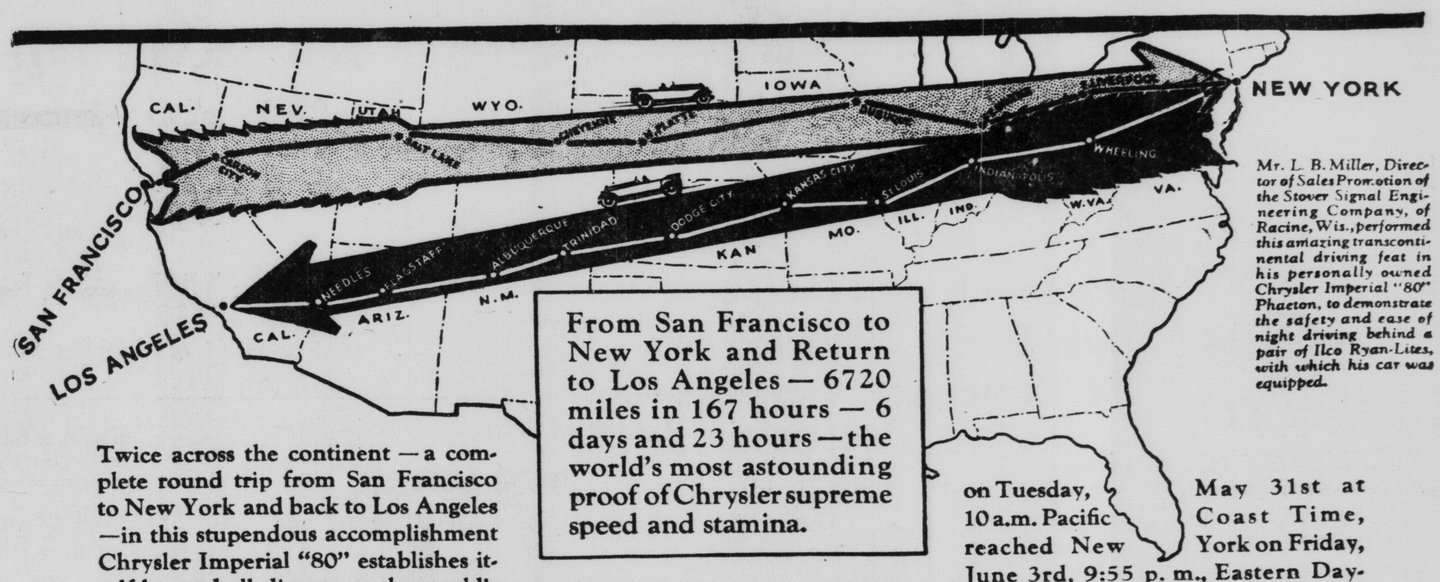
Coast to Coast and back again! CHRYSLER Accomplishes Unprecedented Feat



Mr. L. B. Miller, Director of Sales Promotion of the Stover Signal Engineering Company, of Racine, Wis., performed this amazing transcontinental driving feat in his personally owned Chrysler Imperial "80" Phaeton, to demonstrate the safety and ease of night driving behind a pair of Ilco Ryan-Lites, with which his car was equipped.

From San Francisco to New York and Return to Los Angeles — 6720 miles in 167 hours — 6 days and 23 hours — the world's most astounding proof of Chrysler supreme speed and stamina.

Twice across the continent — a complete round trip from San Francisco to New York and back to Los Angeles — in this stupendous accomplishment Chrysler Imperial "80" establishes itself beyond all dispute as the world's leader in motoring performance and stamina.

Not content with breaking all one-way transcontinental records by driving his personal stock Imperial "80" from San Francisco to New York in 79 hours, 55 minutes — absolutely without mechanical adjustment — Mr. L. B. Miller, of Racine, Wis., accompanied by Mr. John Wieber, of Portland, Ore., turned right around without losing a moment's time and sped back to the Pacific Coast, over the National Old Trail to Los Angeles —

A transcontinental round trip of 6720 miles in 167 hours, 59 minutes—from coast to coast and back again in 7 days, averaging nearly 1000 miles a day and maintaining this terrific pace for a week — not over a prepared speedway, but through cities' traffic tangles, over mountain trails, rutted dirt roads, through mud and gumbo, as well as over concrete, brick and gravel.

Miller and his car left San Francisco on Tuesday, May 31st at 10 a.m. Pacific Coast Time, reached New York on Friday, June 3rd, 9:55 p. m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time, and arrived in Los Angeles on Tuesday, June 7th, 9:59 a.m.

No greater proof can be given of the remarkable ruggedness and endurance of the Imperial "80".

No more convincing proof than this supreme test can be offered of the quality, engineering design and precision manufacturing which make every Chrysler Imperial "80" as fine as money can build.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

BY MRS. MARY MORTON

MENU HINT

The meal planned into today's column is for a family of four. The curry of lamb and rice is a change from the ordinary roast and chops and would be a good recipe to file. Rhubarb and strawberry jelly is a light and timely dessert.

Curry of Lamb with Rice
Asparagus
Cottage Cheese Salad
Rhubarb and Strawberry Jelly
Chocolate Spice Cakes
Coffee

TODAY'S RECIPES

Curry of Lamb with Rice—Two pounds of lean lamb, one tablespoon curry, two tablespoons butter or substitute, salt and paprika, two onions, two tablespoons flour, one cup lamb stock or milk. Cut up the lamb into convenient pieces, add the onion slices, some mint or parsley, and cook in just enough water to cover until tender, season with salt and paprika. Strain off the stock. Make a curry sauce by blending together the butter and flour, stir in the hot stock or milk and cook until smooth and thick, then add the curry powder. Stir this into the stewed lamb. Serve this in a border of cooked, seasoned rice, garnish with mint or parsley and sliced lemon.

Rhubarb and Strawberry Jelly—Two tablespoons gelatin, one pint strawberries, one cup sugar, one and one-half cups hot rhubarb juice, one-fourth cup pineapple juice. Dissolve the gelatine in the cold water, stir into the hot rhubarb juice to which the sugar has been added. When gelatine and sugar are dissolved stir in the other fruit juices. Set away to stiffen. When partially congealed pour into molds in which some of the whole strawberries have been placed and let stand until firm. Turn out and serve with whipped cream. Use strawberry rhubarb if possible since it makes such a pretty pink juice. If this is not obtainable add a little pink coloring to give the pink tint.

Cottage Cheese Salad—One pound cottage cheese, two tablespoons minced garden cress or parsley, one-half teaspoon paprika, mayonnaise, chives, lettuce leaves. Stir into the cheese the minced chives, cress and a spoonful of the mayonnaise, season with salt and pepper paprika; then mold into balls and serve in little nests of lettuce or cress, as preferred.

SUGGESTIONS

Club Sandwich

If you don't care to stop downtown for a bite to eat after the theater or dance, why not have a lunch at home, especially if you have house guests. The ingredients for the "snack" may be all prepared so that the food is ready in a few minutes. Here is the recipe for the popular club sandwich which can be prepared in a few moments, especially if you have a handy electric toaster and grill. The coffee or cocoa may be cooking while you are preparing the sandwiches.

Toast three slices of bread, spread with mayonnaise, lay a few lettuce leaves on first slice, then two strips of cooked bacon and two slices of cooked chicken. Cover with second slice of toast, spread again with mayonnaise, lay a few lettuce leaves on top and thin slices of tomatoes. Cover with third slice of toast and serve hot.

Cleaning White Shoes

When white canvas shoes are to be cleaned it is well to stuff them with paper to hold the shape. Go over thoroughly with soap and water applied with a hard brush. Remove all soap, dry in the sun and then put on the white dressing.

Tennis Shoes Cleaned

Tennis shoes may be cleaned and a suede effect achieved by rubbing with dry, powdered whiting with a piece of flannel.

Here's Family Making Claim To State Fame

(International News Service)

HUNTINGDON, Pa., June 15.—Huntingdon steps forward to claim for one of its families a State, if not a national record for school attendance.

The family, that of Marshall Showalter, consists of nine children—the eldest recently married and the youngest not yet of school age.

The eldest, Thelma, went through the grade school, the high school and the J. C. Blair Memorial Hospital Nurses' training school without missing a day's attendance in thirteen years, and never having been tardy. She has since become Mrs. Robert S. Jacobs.

The next in line is Harvey, now a sophomore in Juniata college. Harvey went through the grade school and high school in twelve years, without a single absence or tardiness being chalked up against him.

Jean was graduated from the High school this June, with never an absence or tardiness in thirteen years. Virginia is next, having completed her freshman year at the high school, without a single absence or tardy mark against her since her second grade. Elizabeth is in the sixth grade, and has never missed a day. Marshall, Jr., is in the fifth grade, with never an absence or tardiness against him, and Chauncey is in the third grade, proudly bearing his part of the family record, with a clean slate to date.

Robert and Frederick, the babies of the family, look forward to their school days, the family being confident that they, too, will contribute to the family record.

EASTON JUDGE HOLDS CITY ORDINANCE FOR LIQUOR BAN INVALID

EASTON, Pa., June 15.—Judge William McKeen has handed down a decision declaring invalid an ordinance under which thousands of dollars in fines has been collected by the city of Bethlehem for violations of the liquor laws.

If the decision is upheld by the higher courts it means that the fines thus collected will have to be returned to those who paid them, that is if any of those fined care to take an appeal and stand chance of receiving a conviction by jury and a probable jail sentence. Tells Of Experiences In Early Days Teaching Old Country Schools

To the New Castle News:—

All activities are suspended in my home when the evening paper arrives. Nothing counts until it is read. I have been very much interested in the letters from the School Teachers of long ago, and especially in the account of the wages they received for their services. I think I have seen no report of any thing less than thirty dollars per month, so I feel quite sure that I am in line to get the Blue Ribbon. I taught school in 1865 for eleven dollars per month. There were twenty two school days in the month then, so I was earning 50 cents a day, and I was as rich as Croesus. It was a three months term and before I slept, for weeks, every night I spent my thirty three dollars. I taught for several years after that and had much better salary, but it is a very pleasant memory that I tried just as hard to conscientionsly do my duty as when I was earning three and four times as much. My sister who was ten years older than I taught her first term in Crawford County for Five Dollars per month. I have been very much surprised to learn that some things that were required of the teachers in those days are now required of the some of teachers in Lawrence County, i. e. they have to make their own fires in the morning and do their own sweeping, or hire it done. I read a speech made by one of the State's best educators just recently. He said "It costs the State of Pennsylvania twenty one million dollars a year to maintain her public schools." Ought not all the rooms be warm and clean? I always remember with thankfulness some thing that occurred when I was building fires in a dear old school house. I had plenty of good green wood furnished but no kindling. It was my custom at Recess to put some of the finest sticks on top of the stove and by four o'clock they would be quite dry and ready for the morning. We didn't get excited in those days when we knew we were to have a certain kind of company, but we did get through other. This night I was "Throughother" and went home and left the wood on the stove. At ten o'clock I remembered. I knew earthly help could not avail, so I went to the One that I knew could help and asked God to save the school house. In the morning on my way to school a woman came to her door and said. "The strangest thing happened last night, at ten o'clock, Walter said he felt like going out and running around in the snow awhile, I tried to persuade him not to go but he did and looking up the road he saw a light in the schoolhouse and going to see what was wrong he found the wood on and around, the stove on fire, and put it out." It wasn't strange to me. I expected it. There was a hole in the floor and one end of the stove had fallen in. The big boys son got it out, laid a board across, and before long we were following the usual program. I believed then and do now that I was just as surely answered as were those who prayed for Peter. I am thankful for the great privilege I had to be counted worthy to begin such a noble work just as I did, and if the years could turn back and I was offered a Country School again I'd say, "Yes I will take it."

GIRLS OF SCHOOL AGE KEEP IN GOOD HEALTH

They Find Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a Dependable Medicine

LOUISE LOUTHAN
ROUTE 2, CHARLESTON, ILLINOIS

From the days of the polonaise to the days of the radio, mothers have given this dependable medicine to their daughters. School girls are often careless. They get wet feet. They overstudy or they tire themselves with too many dances and parties. They get run down.

Many an active girl of today, like the demure maiden of the 1870's, has found that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is helping her to find better health and energy.

"I gave my fifteen-year-old girl Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it did her a wonderful lot of good. She had been out of school for four months. I read the advertisements of the Vegetable Compound, and since she has taken it she has improved and has gone back to school again. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to other mothers with girls who are not as strong as they should be."—Mrs. Alice Louthan, Route 2, Charleston, Illinois.

"My daughter was out of school two terms. I have known about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound all my life and finally decided that she should try it. Three bottles helped her in various ways for the next couple of years."—Mrs. W. E. Gillette, 986 E. 52nd Place, Los Angeles, Calif.

"I have always been sickly, and until I was fourteen my father was very strict about my perfect attendance at grammar school. I have gone to school through hard storms and often taken cold. When I was fourteen I took to my bed and did not get up for eighteen months. Everyone thought I could not live. Just four months ago I began taking your wonderful medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I could notice a great change almost at once. Now I feel like a new person. I wish all girls would try Lydia E. Pinkham's wonderful medicine."—Mrs. C. M. Smith, Union Village, Vermont.

Accidents Cost 173 Lives During May In State

Industrial Accidents For First Five Months Of Year Show Increase

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 15.—One hundred seventy-three lives were lost in Pennsylvania as the result of industrial accidents during May, final reports to the bureau of statistics of the department of labor and industry made public by W. H. Hoerner, director, today showed. In May, 1926, there were 172 fatal accidents reported to the bureau.

During the first five months of the year 863 workers lost their lives, an increase of almost eight percent over 1926. This condition is mainly due, Hoerner said, to the fact that anthracite mines were operating at almost full schedules during 1927, but were idle for two and a half months at the beginning of 1926.

There were 12,869 non-fatal accidents reported to the bureau during May, a decrease of 11.4 percent below May last year.

An examination of the industrial classification of the 173 fatal accidents reported in May shows that 26 of the number killed were engaged in the construction industry; 30 in manufacturing concerns; 80, or nearly half of total were employed in mines—57 in anthracite and 23 in bituminous; 15 were employed in the transportation industry; 5 in public utility works; 2 in retail stores; 2 in wholesale trading firms; 8 in the state and municipal group and 5 in miscellaneous occupations.

The construction industy and anthracite mines both present an unusually bad fatality record for May. An increase of accidents in the construction industry in May was not expected because of seasonal expansion of construction employment, but the total is the highest reported since October 1925.

Thre fatal accident total reported from anthracite mines during May was the highest for any month since August 1925.

Thirty fatalities were reported from the manufacturing group of industries in May. While this total is slightly higher than that of April it represents the second consecutive month fatalities in this group have been 25 per cent below normal.

Final Drive For Hadassah Members

New Castle Chapter Making Preparations For National Convention

New Castle Chapter of Hadassah is winding up this year's membership to report maximum figures at the Hadassah National convention, to be held in Atlantic City, June 23, 24, and 25.

Due to the fact that the convention will be held a week earlier than in former years, the 270 chapters throughout the country are bending an effort toward obtaining as many new members as possible in the short time available.

The local chapter has increased its membership to 115. A concentrated pre-convention drive is now in progress. All of the present members plan to secure at least one new member more before the convention.

Mrs. Louis F. Kohn, president of the chapter, this week issued an appeal to all members to help raise the chapter figures by an intensive final drive in the next few weeks. The chapter is eager to be one of the three prize winners for securing the highest proportionate membership increase for the year.

Delegates to the convention have already been elected in New Castle. They are Mrs. Louis Kohn with Mrs. Eli Kaplan as alternate.

Nationally there will be more than 500 delegates at the convention. The report of the Hadassah Commission, which has just returned from a two month's investigation of health conditions in Palestine, will be made at this assembly and its importance has aroused the chapters to full appreciation of their part in deliberation that will affect the entire policy of Hadassah in Palentine.

At the final meeting of the local chapter the following officers were elected for the coming year; President, Mrs. L. F. Kohn; First Vice President, Mrs. H. Cukerbaum; Second Vice President, Mrs. L. Miller; Third Vice President, Mrs. Jacob Levine; Cor. Secretary, Mrs. R. Rubenson; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Marc Levine; Financial Secretary, Mrs. Abba Levine and Treasurer, Mrs. A. Goldman.

Chicken Coops Now Concealing Bootleg Plants

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 15. — Chicken coops are the latest places for illicit distilling plants in this district according to reports from Federal agents.

The prohibition officials here said they had in their possession today a 75 gallon still, 50 gallons of moonshine whiskey and 21 barrels of mash which they confiscated in a chicken coop in the rear of the residence of Henry Price of Baldwin township near a country club.

Price was arrested and will be given a hearing before a United States Commissioner.

This was the second still found by agents here within a month.

One Man Killed; Three Injured In Pittsburgh Crash

PITTSBURGH, June 15. — One man was dead and three persons were in a hospital here suffering serious injuries today the result of a collision of a taxicab and an automobile in the downtown district last night.

Work Progresses On Girls' Home

Third Floor Of Old Homestead Being Made Into Dormitories

Crawford Oak Ridge Home for Girls, located on Atlantic avenue near Mahonig avenue is being rapidly remodeled and will be ready for occupancy, during the summer it is anticipated.

The entire third floor is being completely remodeled and thus makes possible the occupancy of five or more rooms. This has been made possible by a recent gift from John List Crawford of New York who has donated the old Crawford homestead and a great amount of the money for the remodeling of the homestead for use as a home for girls.

Five dormer windows have been placed in the third story of the building which furnishes a bounteous supply of light to the rooms there.

A great number of changes has had to be made on all floors to adapt the building as homes for many girls instead of the old home for ont family that it was originally built for.

The building is ideally located as far as a view of the city is concerned. On top of the house is a cupola which is reached from the inside by a stairway. In summer or winter one of the finest views may be had from this point of vantage.

The house has been completely wired for electricity and the plumbers are now at work putting in bathroom equipment for the new home. A modern heating plant is being installed and everything being done to make it a comfortable home for girls that expect to occupy it within a few weeks.

Wild Cats And Snakes Bother To Kansas Towns

(International News Service)

TOPEKA, Kan., June 15.—Wild cats and bullsnakes are becoming a menace to Western Kansas vicinties according to reports here.

Warden J. B. Doze of the state forestry fish and game commission in a report just released, declares thousands of cats are roaming the rural districts of the state around Pratt, in Pratt county and are killing birds, chickens and small farm animals at an alarming rate.

These cats, Doze reported are not real wild cats but have been town or city cats that went wild.

Bullsnakes in the vicinity of Junction City are spreading terror even though the reptile is comparatively harmless. It is not a poisonous species.

Dr. Cook Refused Probation Release

NEW ORLEANS, June 15.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook was refused a five-year probation when the United States court of appeals reversed the decision of the United States district court of Northern Texas.

Dr. Cook's fight for freedom goes back over a period of three years to a time shortly after his being found guilty in November, 1924, of dealing in spurious stock. His appeal was refused by the higher court in February, 1925, but a few months later, Dr. Cook requested Harry Wilson, trial judge in the district of Northern Texas to grant him a five-year probation. This was granted.

Henry Zweifel, United States district attorney at Fort Worth, declared that Judge Wilson had no such authority and the case went to the United States court of appeals here. An appeal to the supreme court is said to be the only recourse left for Dr. Cook, who is serving a 14-year sentence at Fort Leavenworth federal prison.

POOR GRAIN CROP BUT GOOD HAY CROP

MERCER, Pa., June 15. —With the possibility of good grain crops somewhat in doubt due to the wet weather conditions an economic balance of this lose is struck in the report that a good hay crop may be expected. Both of the clover and timothy hay growth it is reported that there will not only be good but bumper crops in this county.

A rainy season is not without its compensation in the fast growth of this growth farmers state.

With the grain crops in the county planted all that is needed is plenty of warm weather to sprout and develop them. Farmers predict a cropless season if present weather conditions should continue.

ZONING BOARD GRANTS APPEAL

Alfonso Scarazza Given Permit For Home On Hazelcroft Avenue

Board of Zoning Appeals sitting in executive session, made a decision in the one case still pending before it, namely that of Alfonzo Scarazza, who proposes erecting a fine new dwelling at 216 Hazelcroft avenue and desired permission to enclose the one-half of his front porch, which would be entirely beyond the building line of the street.

The decision was favorable to Mr. Scarazza, the board directing the city registry clerk, Neal Williams, and City Engineer F. F. Miller to issue the desired permit. The property in question is in a residence district, where no glass enclosed porches are permitted beyond the building line governing the district.

The appeal was granted because of the fact that Mr. Scarazza presented a list of consents to his proposition, in which was included all property owners on the south side of Hazelcroft avenue between Albert and Carlisle streets.

Mr. Scarazza proposes constructing a fine new home at this place in the immediate future.

With your permission, we would like to answer the communication of Mr. Gill appearing in your issue of Tuesday and relating to accident occurring Monday.

We agree with Mr. Gill that the facts as they occurred were not all properly stated.

We were on a serious accident call to Moravia street, being detailed by Acting Sergeant D. T. Nelson.

As in all such cases of emergency, we are required to get there as soon as possible, but in this case, we were using caution and not exceeding thirty miles an hour, when Mary Saad came across Mill street on the Pennsylvania tracks and from behind a northbound automobile.

When we saw her, she was apparently busily engaged in eating something and not paying attention to traffic. We were about thirty feet away when we first saw her. It was too late to avoid an accident and in trying to avoid her, the car was turned into the railroad yard, the back fender of the car striking her. The car did not travel over thirty feet from the place we first saw her.

Apparently she was paying no attention to traffic or she would not have been hit by the car. As far as Mr. Gill's statement that she was unconscious at 8:30 p. m., on the evening of the accident, this is untrue, as can be verified at the New Castle hospital.

She was at no time unconscious and answered when spoken to as she was being picked up. At the hospital, she gave us her name and address.

We are sorry that the accident occurred but risked injury to ourselves in our effort to avoid hitting Miss Saad.

Signed:
Officer Charles D. Augostine,
Officer Charles Longstreth.

Marbleoid Floors At Rose Avenue School Cracked

As the result of the marbleoid floor of the Rose Avenue school breaking and cracking, members of the New Castle School Board took action Tuesday evening towards getting the floors repaired. The Marbleoid Company submitted an offer to do the work at cost, but after the report of Architect Harry Wirsing was received, it was felt that the company should make the repairs gratis.

Sometime after the marbleoid floors were installed there were signs of cracking and checking. The cracks were investigated by Mr. Wirsing and he found that they were caused by the marbleoid itself, not by the cracking of the concrete base. Secretary Marquis was authorized to communicate with the company in an endeavor to see whether or not they would not make good the damage.

Complete Plans For Rose Show

Fourth Annual Show By Garden Club Set For June 22-23

At the meeting of the Garden Club held Tuesday evening the date for the fourth annual Rose Show was set for Wednesday and Thursday, June 22 and 23, to be held in the Carnegie auditorium. Plans have been under way for some time for the show, but with the actual date set these plans will now be rushed to completion.

For several weeks the club has been working on the best date, but the weather has been such that it seemed doubtful for a time that the show could be held. However, Nature seems to have been with the Garden Club and the roses, peonies, delphinium and the other spring blooms usually entered seem to be in splendid shape for the show.

Committees at Work

Under the direction of Mrs. Marcus Feuchtwanger, president of the Garden Club, committees are hard at work co-ordinating their various functions in the endeavor to present the usual splendid exhibit.

The publicity committee is comprised of Mrs. David Ritchie, Mrs. W. C. Mechem, Mrs. B. K. Thacker, Miss Elizabeth Reis, Mrs. E. G. Greiner.

Classification committee: Mrs. S. D. Pearson, Mrs. W. A. Pond, Mrs. R. A. Long.

Staging: Mrs. M. Feuchtwanger, Mrs. Norman Martin, Mrs. W. C. Kennedy, Miss Jennie Marshall, Mrs. Allan Urmson, Mrs. S. J. Bratschie.

Reception: Mrs. J. Norman Martin, Mrs. Charles Greer and Mrs. D. R. Harris.

The show is open to amateurs, private growers and commercial growers, and each section is offered splendid prizes for their blooms.

Each year the Rose Show has seen improvement over the year previous. Started as a very small exhibit, the Rose Show has grown in four years to an annual event that is looked forward to here with anticipation. It is not staged for profit, but merely to enlarge the interest of citizens in horticulture, and the nominal fee of 10 cents is charged and rarely ever covers the expense of the show.

All entrants are asked to file their entry blanks with Mrs. S. D. Pearson of Moody avenue.

Miss Rudy Tells Of Conditions In South China

Missionary Tells Of Terrible Experiences Which she Underwent While On The Foreign Field

A fresh and stirring vision was given to those who attended the service Tuesday at the Hoover Heights Tabernacle of the Christian and Missionary Alliance on Morris street. Pictures of conditions in China, were given in a way that are likely to be remembered for years to come, by Miss Rudy who spent 15 years in missionary work there. Three years ago she was forced to return to this country because of shattered nerves and weak body as a result of the straining experiences through which she had passed. Her field of labor was South China, in which section the present great trouble which is sweeping China originated. She has been in the midst of fighting, dodging bullets and escaping mobs and protecting the children under her care.

In the afternoon she gave part of the service especially to the children, as half of the audience was composed of them. She taught them some choruses and told of child life in China.

In the evening she illustrated her talk with photos taken on the field. She declared that she would like to bring heathenism to this country as it is that all might know the real truth. But even in the pictures the worst could not be seen. However, some of the conditions shown will linger with those who saw and they must rejoice that such conditions on a large scale do not exist here.

The children's service will be held this week and all summer on Friday morning at 9:45.

Episcopal Pastor Startles Delegates With Live Address

Communion Services Feature Second Day Of Annual Session At San Francisco

(International News Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—With the rather startling address of Rev. Henry Lewis, rector of St. Andrew's church, Ann Arbor, Mich., still a warm topic of discussion, the second session of the Episcopal Church Congress got under way here today with the holding of communion services by Rev. John G. Murray, bishop of Maryland.

Speaking before the congress last night, Rev. Lewis voiced the opinion that unmarried unions should be sanctioned by the church.

"If to sanctify unmarried unions," he said, "would do away, as some urge that it would, with promiscuity and double standard, and better protect the children of legal marriages, then it should be considered.

"All of us are probably not willing to concede the sanctification of unmarried unions, but there are some scientific discoveries which the church should urge and concede."

Among those was named birth control.

Lewis said his contact with the younger generation "makes him proud of it."

Lutheran Synod Opens Sessions At Rochester, Pa.

Estimate 500 Delegates To Annual Session; Will Try Rev. Smith For Heresy

(International News Service)

ROCHESTER, Pa., June 15.—Business sessions of the eighty-fifth annual meeting of the Pittsburgh synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church opened here today.

Approximately 300 ministers and 200 laymen were in attendance. They faced a busy session until adjournment next Monday, their routine including the trial of the Rev. Frank Edwin Smith, of Pittsburgh, on heresy charges.

Inasmuch as the accused minister has refused to retract his avowed disbelief in the virgin birth, the miracles of the Bible and other doctrines of the church, his trial was considered a mere matter of form.

It was pointed out by delegates to the conference that but one verdict can be reached, that is to find him guilty, because he has admitted the charges. Expulsion from the church was considered the probable penalty, but this will be meaningless as the Rev. Smith already has left the church to accept a Unitarian call.

Controversy Over Lindbergh's Planes Rages In Capital

William Mitchell, Deposed Flier, Blames "Naval Inefficiency" For Row

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 15.—While Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's famous trans-Atlantic plane, "The Spirit of St. Louis", rested in a hangar at the naval air station today awaiting its pilot, an acrimonious controversy broke out here today over who was to blame for the defective motor which prevented Lindbergh from flying the ship to New York.

Col. William Mitchell, former stormy petrel of the army air service, and admittedly one of the foremost flyers in the country, flatly charged that the faulty engine was due to "naval inefficiency".

Edward P. Warner, assistant secretary of the navy in charge of aviation, denied that any blame could be attached to the navy and asserted that the plane was reassembled at the Anacostia field by engineers for the Wright Company.

Col. Mitchell made his charges in a letter to the Washington Post, which had printed a communication from Secretary Warner praising the navy personnel that handled Lindbergh's ship.

PETERS ADVENTURES IN ANIMAL LAND

By Florence Smith Vincent

THE BROAD HIGHWAY

"Matty, oh, Matty, where have you gone? I didn't mean to be cross. Of course, it was not your fault that I came. Don't leave me all alone, please don't. If you are angry with me and don't want me to visit your home I will go away and never trouble you again if only you will show me the shortest way up. Matty, come back! Come back!"

Peter had always thought that he was a pretty brave boy. But then, you see, he had never been 'way down underneath the ground before. He thought Mole had gone off and left him or perhaps something had happened to Matty—the fellow had dropped out of sight so suddenly and without a word, just as if he had fallen into a hole. Mercy! Maybe he had! The Boy didn't dare go a step further. When he thought of the poor Miner who had been buried for a whole day with nobody but the snails, he just had to open his mouth and scream. Although he yelled as loudly as he could, it seemed to him of no use. Nobody could hear his voice. It was smothered in the earth. Yet scarcely had the cry been uttered when an answer came and not far off at all, but right at his very feet.

"Stop screeching, do! My ears are tingling from your hullabaloo. I could have heard you if you had only whispered. There is no animal in the land that can hear better than I can." The voice was Mole's.

"Where are you?" demanded Peter.

"Right underneath you. I sank through a hole!"

"Why didn't you tell me you were going to?" asked the Boy.

"Because I didn't know it myself," declared Matty. "You remember I told you we had come to the broad highway? Well, I miscalculated a bit. Instead of tunnelling down to a level with the road I broke through the side. But 'tis no distance at all. You are standing on the edge now. Slide down, as I did, can't you?"

Upon hearing Matty's voice once more Peter's fear again left him, and now he was able to see more clearly, and sure enough, bending over, he glimpsed below him, in what seemed to be another trench, a dim form that must be Matty. He tried to slide down the slanting tunnel just as Mole had told him to, but it was too narrow to sit down in and there was nothing to hang onto, so somehow he lost his footing and tumbled down head first. He was not hurt a bit, and when he scrambled to his feet by his friend he found himself standing in a tunnel that, not any lighter than the first one had been, was yet hard and smooth under foot and wide and high enough for him to stretch in.

"Ah, this is fine," said he, and raised his arms as far as they would go above his head and stamped his feet. Matty chuckeld with pleasure.

"Glad you like it," said he. "This is the widest street in Moledom and it leads straight through the city. It would never do for all the Moles to build their houses upon it—they could be reached too easily by the enemy—but they all have private paths leading to it. Quite a piece of engineering it was to build this highway through the ground. None but natural born miners could possibly have done it. But you must see our fortresses if you want to see really wonderful pieces of architecture. It takes a strong foe to harm us there."

NEW CASTLE TO PLAY HOMESTEAD GRAYS TONIGHT

Game Scheduled At 6:15 O'clock

New Castle O. & P. League Team To Battle Grays Second Time This Year

MEIS IS LIKELY PITCHING SELECTION

By "BUGS" WALTHER.

The New Castle team of the O. and P. league will clash with the Homestead Grays tonight at 6:15 o'clock at Centennial field. With good weather prevailing the fans are assured of a fast game.

The Grays appeared in this city several weeks ago and took the measure of the local leaguers by a close score. The New Castle boys are waiting for their revenge tonight. Indications are that Manager "Molly" Meis will take the mound for the locals with "Lefty" Williams the likely pitching choice for the Grays.

In other years the Grays have been a big attraction at the New Castle park. The Homestead boys play a great game and they are welcomed in almost any ball lot. While they have not had the same success this year that has characterized their play in other years the Grays have a great array of stars this season and they are going strong in semi-pro circles.

New Castle will have their full lineup in the game tonight. Maxim the local shortstop who has been out of the game for several days with a boil on his right hand will be back at short. McCoy the home-run hitter, will be at first base. McCullough will cover third and Lawrence will cavort at second. The outfield will be composed of Byak General and Flynn.

The locals have improved considerable in their past few games and they are hoping to start another winning streak today. On Saturday New Castle will journey to Butler for a game.

First Christians Snatch Victory

The First Christians with Lackey in fine form defeated the Central Christians 5 to 4 in a Church league affair at the Lehigh field on Tuesday night.

The game was decided in the sixth inning when the First Christians scored three runs. Seven errors by the Central Christians were responsible in a large measure for the defeat.

AMATEUR NOTES

Marcella Grocers marked down two more victories Tuesday when they defeated the Shenango Tin Mill nine in two games, 3-2 and 14-8, both being played on the B and O. field. This only adds to the long list of victories already marked down for these hustlers. In the first game the 3-2 result tells the story of a pitchers' battle with Tom Marcella outpitching Yeager of the Mill team. In the second game Panass and Nocera for the defeated nine served up some dainty hits to the Grocers, one of these being a home run by R. DiMuccio, while J. DiMuccion and R. DiMuccio each tried the mound during the game and held their opposition down to a few hits.

The Grocers have been going strong, winning 15 games out of 17. They will strive to blot out one of their defeats when they meet the Dewberry Gasoline lads, who defeated them, 4-2, once before. The game will be played on the Scotland Lane ground Thursday.

St. Phillips and St. James baseball club have scheduled the following games: P. A. A. on Glassers field today; Marcella Grocers on B. and O. grounds Saturday, June 18; Blue Races on Ben Franklin High grounds Monday, June 20.

PILES UP MORE RECORDS

Although Ray Schalk is busy keeping his sensational White Sox up near the top of the American League race, he's figuring on doing some more catching as soon as the days are nice and hot. That means he's going to pile up more records, for he already leads the leagues in number of games caught.

Sport Alphabet

By NORMAN E. BROWN

Frankie Frisch was one of the few players under the big tent to come up from college ranks and make good in his first year in the majors.

He played 1,000 games for the New York Giants in eight campaigns, batting an average of .321 since 1919. In the four world's series in which he has taken part has batting average has been .378.

Frisch was captain of the Giants prior to being traded to St. Louis with Jimmy Ring in one of the biggest deals of the year, in which McGraw acquired Rogers Hornsby for the pair.

He is continuing his fine work with the Cards, maintaining a batting average around .350 and with a base-stealing record well up among the leaders.

Some other famous "F's" of the sport world are:

Bob Fitzsimmons Jr., son of the famous fighter.

Art Fletcher, coach of the New York Giants.

Johnny Farrell, American pro golfer.

Luis Angel Firpo, former heavy aspirant, defeated by Jack Dempsey.

Lee Fohl, former big league manager, now manager of the Toronto International League club.

Benny Friedman, Michigan's All-American football quarterback.

Joan Fry of the English amateur tennis team.

Rocco To Box At Youngstown

Emmett Rocco of Ellwood City and Andy Moran of Cleveland, are scheduled to box in the main bout of a fistic attraction at Youngstown June 21. There will be several other bouts on the card.

Oxford University gave a good exhibition of baseball the other day when they defeated the London Americans at Stamford Bridge 15 to 7.

Lawrence Indies Win From South Hills 6 To 5

Wilson's Homer Wins For Cubs

Chicago Cubs Win Tenth Straight Game At Expense Of Crippled Giants

ALEXANDER SAVES DAY FOR ST. LOUIS

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, June 15.—With ten straight victories to their credit, the Chicago Cubs figure to compile the greatest winning streak of the season at the expense of the lowly Phillies, who begin a series with the Bruins today. The Cubs are only one game behind the Pirates.

Hack Wilson's thirteenth homer featured Chicago's 4 to 3 victory over the Giants yesterday. Having failed to trade themselves into a pennant, the Giants are now picking on the umpires. They claim that Pick's single, which drove in the winning run in the eleventh, was foul by a city block, and kicked loud and long at previous decisions in the series. The New Yorkers have dropped eight of their last ten games.

Jakie May of the Reds held the Braves to four hits and blanked them 1 to 0. Henry Wertz pitched well for the losers but was in what is technically known as a tough spot.

Grover Alexander's relief pitching insured the Cardinals 6 to 4 victory over the Phillies. Cy Williams walloped his eleventh homer. The Cards swept the series.

The other ten clubs were idle. The White Sox and Athletics begin a battle for second place today in Philadelphia.

Walter Beall, the original wild man, has been sent to St. Paul by the Yankees on option and Connie Mack has shipped Dudley Branom the millionaire first baseman to Portland of the Pacific Coast league on option.

Police To Play Leslie Again

Police and members of the Leslie House baseball teams today invaded local drug stores in search of muscle-looseners in anticipation of the second of a three game series, to be played at two o'clock Thursday, at Sampson field.

The police are reported to have captured the first game though the Leslie deny they were beaten 29 to 6 and say the score was 19 to 10 and as some of their best players were not present they claim Thursday's game will be won by the Leslie.

NO PIRATE GAME

Rain prevented the scheduled game yesterday between the Pittsburgh and Brooklyn team in the National league.

A call boy who received a check for his promptitude in giving an alarm of fire at the Garrick theater London, decided to wager the amount on the Derby. Naturally his choice fell on "Call Boy" and when that horse won he pocketed a substantial sum.

Golf has been played in South Dakota since 1895 when the first club was formed at Yankton. In 1903 a state association was organized.

Branom was realeased to the Portland club under an optional agreement, the A.'s retaining the right to recall him next spring.

The Release of Branom brings the Athletics down to 25 player limit required by league rules at this time and Connie Mack has announced he does not intend to make any more changes.

Woman Is Freed By Coast Jury

(International News Service)

SAN DIEGO, Cal., June 15. — Mrs. Hilda Florence Blymire today was free of the charge of murder in connection with the death of her husband, Clarence M. Blymire, former, Harrisburg, Pa., man, who died last night from gun shot wounds.

His wife clamed that he was shot during a struggle for possession of a gun. The struggle occurred after they had quarreled over a trip Mrs. Blymire had taken to Tia Juana, Mexico.

Only one ballot was taken by the jury yesterday. The eight men and four women unanimously voted for acquittal.

Blymire was a chief petty officer in the navy.

Joseph Harris who has been leading the National league at bat was released by both the Washington and Boston American league clubs because he was considered of no especial use.

The major league record for consecutive victories, 26, is held by the New York Giants.

Garlands Defeat Hillsville 3-0

The West Pittsburg Garlands whitewashed the Hillsville team, 3 to 0, in a Twilight League affair staged Tuesday night at the West Pittsburg field.

Braykovich, on the hill for the Garlands, pitched a fine brand of ball and allowed the Hillsville boys but four hits. Augostine opposed Braykovich on the knoll and was found for six hits.

Tony Onicka featured the game with a home run drive.

Golf Alphabet—M

By Feg Murray

Copyright, 1927, by Metropolitan Newspaper Service

A golf statistician, searching for M's, need only take his spoon and dip into a water hazard of alphabet soup to find plenty of champions splashing around. The 13th letter is the last initial of many a great exponent of the Scotch pastime, beginning with Tom Morris, senior, who won the British open championship in 1861, '62, '64 and '67, down to young Roland Mackenzie, who was a member of the United States Walker Cup team in 1925 at the tender age of 19.

Where Tom Morris Sr. left off, his son began, and his father's title was won by him in 1868, '69, '70 and '72. One R. Martin copped in 1876 and '85, and Arnaud Massy, a Frenchman, invaded England and won the British open crown in 1907, and tied with Harry Vardon in 1911, but lost on the replay. Massy won the open championship of his own country four different times.

In our own open championship, Freddie McLeod triumphed after a play-off in 1908, and tied for second 13 years later. Tommy McNamara was runner-up in 1909, '12 and '15, and then a naive American, J. J. McDermott, won twice in succession in 1911 and 1912, after being second in 1919. The last "M" to break through in this tournament was Willie Mcfarlane, who won only after a tie and a double play-off with Bobby Jones in 1925.

One of the favorites to win the present United States open tournament, now under way at Oakmont, is William Mehlhorn, sometimes called the "Wild Bill of the Pampas". This bow-legged, blond buccaneer is one of the most famous of all professionals, and has yet to win his first major championship. Abe Mitchell is in a like fix, though Abe, before he turned pro, was runner-up in the British amateur tournament. Bob McDonald, the Chicago pro, might crash through any year, too. There seems to be plenty of these "Mc" and "Mac" golfers!

Max Marston of Philadelphia won the United States amateur crown from Jess Sweetser at Flossmoor in 1923, and another "M", C. B. MacDonald, won the very first championship back in 1895. British amateurs who have worn the title in their own land are L. Balfour Melville, in 1895, and Robert Maxwell, in 1909. Not forgetting the ladies, there are Pauline Mackay, United States champion in 1905, and Ada McKenzie, Canadian titleholder last year.

Other M's of note are Jimmy and Stewart Maiden, Johnny McHugh, Ernest and Hutt Marlin, C., A. and W. A. Murray, Lionel Munn, Jack Morris, Charles Mayo, Leslie Melville and Mrs. Allan Macbeth.

Feg Murray Says—

"The Babe hit Hudlin in an unprotected part of left field."—From account of Yankee-Cleveland game May 21. Did this Ruth, too, use a sash-weight for this dastardly deed?

SPORTS DONE BROWN

By NORMAN E. BROWN

Big league managers who cry "players! players!" but find none may take a lesson from Joe McCarthy, manager of the threatening Cubs.

McCarthy is at least taking advantage of the players available.

This is indicated by one week's activities during which period he snared three ball players—all of whom he counts on using regularly to keep his National Leaguers "up there."

The three men are pitchers Harold Carlson and Wayland Dean and Third Baseman Eddie Pick.

And there's an interesting story behind the acquisition of two of these players—Dean and Pick.

Dean was a pitcher with the Louisville club of the American association when McCarthy was managing that club. McCarthy remembered also that Dean was a GOOD pitcher. The major leagues apparently thought so, too, judging from the brisk manner in which they bid for Dean's services.

You'll recall that the Giants won out—bought Dean at a fancy figure the same spring the New York Yankees bought Earl Combs, young outfielding star of the same club.

Combs as the world knows proceeded to deliver the goods at bat and afield for the New York Yankees. Dean was a failure as records go—with the Giants, and when moved to the Phils continued to flounder about, getting nowhere.

Now this intrigued Mr. McCarthy. So much so that on every opportunity he watched Dean's work closely. The opportunities were rare. Dean was used as a finisher by McGraw. When tossed in to start a few games he failed to find himself. As a member of the Phils Dean suffered constantly from a lame arm.

McCarthy, it is said, finally discovered what he believed to be trouble. McGraw apparently had changed the hurler's style.

"Louisville Joe" kept his counsel. When the chance came to grab Dean by the waiver route the other day he was in early with his bid.

The moment Dean reported McCarthy set about to change him back to his old style. Dean was more than willing. Both await results.

Pick's case is equally as interesting.

The Cubs, journeying home from the Pacific coast last spring stopped off at Kansas City to play an exhibition affair after the K. C. team there. A young third baseman with the Kansas City club attracted McCarthy's attention.

At that time McCarthy faced an infield problem but was hopeful that Barney Freigau would fill the bill. Freigau was obtained with Catcher Gonzales in the deal that sent Bob O'Farrell to the Cardinals.

Freigau failed to fill the bill however. McCarthy tried other combinations, including one with Outfielder Riggs Stephenson playing the last turn.

Deciding finally that Freigau would not fit in, McCarthy stepped into the market for a third baseman—and his first move was to make Kansas City a fancy offer for the youngster he had seen in the spring. That young man was Eddie Pick.

Pick's work with Kansas City would indicate that he was ready for the big time. McCarthy believes he is. The coming weeks will decide the matter.

Win or lose on Dean and Pick McCarthy will be given credit for having the initiative to take a chance, while other clubs in the majors moan the lack of ball players—and struggle along with what they have.

In French rugby no substitutes are allowed and despite the roughness of the game it must be finished by the original players.

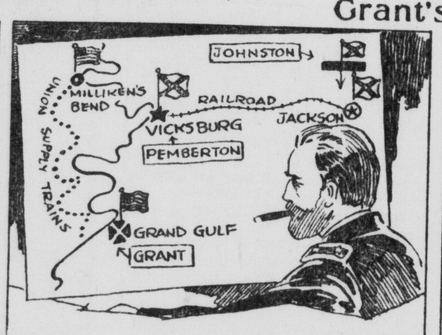
HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

Grant's Strategy.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

AT GRAND GULF, GRANT FOUND HIMSELF IN AN UNCOMFORTABLE POSITION. HE LATER WROTE IN HIS "PERSONAL MEMOIRS", "I WAS IN THE ENEMY'S COUNTRY WITH A VAST RIVER AND THE STRONGHOLD OF VICKSBURG BETWEEN ME AND MY BASE OF SUPPLIES."



ACCORDING TO GRANT, HIS FORCE ON MAY 7, 1863, TOTALLED 33,000 MEN. PEMBERTON HAD ABOUT 40,000 CONFEDERATES AT VICKSBURG AND HAYNES' BLUFF. JOHNSTON WAS CONCENTRATING 15,000 MORE ON JACKSON, THE STATE CAPITAL. IF THESE FORCES UNITED, GRANT'S ARMY WOULD BE IN DANGER.

GRANT, IN PLANNING HIS CAMPAIGN, HAD COUNTED UPON REINFORCEMENTS FROM GEN. BANKS, WHOSE ARMY WAS THREATENING PORT HUDSON. ABOUT THIS TIME, GRANT LEARNED THAT BANKS' ADVANCE HAD BEEN DELAYED AND THAT THE MUCH-NEEDED SUPPORTS WOULD NOT ARRIVE FOR SOME TIME. TO WAIT FOR BANKS WOULD GIVE THE CONFEDERATES TIME TO REINFORCE AND FORTIFY.

GRANT MET THE SITUATION BOLDLY. AGAINST THE ADVICE OF SEVERAL OF HIS GENERALS, HE DECIDED NOT TO WAIT FOR BANKS, BUT TO CUT LOOSE FROM GRAND GULF AND, BY RAPID MARCHING, PLACE HIS ARMY BETWEEN PEMBERTON AND JOHNSTON BEFORE THEY COULD JOIN FORCES AGAINST HIM.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 15.—After a short period of reaction at the opening of the market, the industrial and railroad stocks staged a modern rally today, under the lead of the stocks which dropped so abruptly in yesterday's hectic session.

Instead of following up their advantage, the professionals rushed into the market to cover their shorts, while traders in other sections of the market snapped up all offerings of stock at the lower prices. With apprehension over the money situation removed by confident statements of bankers and the abundance of loanable funds on the "second quarterly settlement" day, leaders of the bullish movement confidently bid for their favorite stocks.

Before the end of the first hour, Delaware and Hudson Railroad had recovered nearly all of yesterday's 8-point loss, the stock rushing up to 220, against Tuesday's close at 212¾. Nickel Plate also resumed its spectacular advance, scoring a new 4½ point gain at 122½. Rock Island, New Haven and other well known rails sold up 1 to 2½ points in an active market.

Dr. Berger Tells Some Of His Experiences In New York Seeing Lindy

In the following communication, Dr. B. M. Berger, of this city, tells of his experiences in that mass of humanity in New York on Monday, and his efforts to get a place of vantage to see Lindy. It's an interesting letter and one that gives some idea of the millions that were out to greet the youth who has amazed the world in the past few weeks.

The letter follows:

June 13, 1927.

Mr. Fred Rentz,
The News.
Dear Rentz:

It behooves me, as a resident and practitioner of our city to describe if possible the most inspiring sight man (women included) could ever witness. With apologies for literary errors, "let's go."

This was the opening day, the beginning of a course we doctors are taking at the Presbyterian hospital. I figured if there was anything doing at all it would hardly be before 10 or 10:30 a. m. Well I figured wrong. It didn't start at all. Too much Lindy. About 50 percent was the best quarum we could get. So, some one made a motion and it didn't need a second. Had lunch and proceeded to find Lindy. At 5th avenue and 59th street, I stopped and got acclimated. A huge wave got me and life preservers were at a premium. The one building at the corner of 59th and 5th that I tried to dock in is not entirely completed and only those having passes were admitted. Yes, I didn't get a pass. I believe the owners gave passes to prospects for future ventures and their friends, and anyone venting there would have to have a better job than owning a newspaper or practicing medicine anyhow. Well, I got my thinking cap on and began to scheme—with myself and a few Irish policemen. You'd have died laughing at my bum scheming.

I have a policeman's card—Fraternal Order of Policeman. So, it didn't take very long to see a policeman. I wonder how enough money is raised to pay them here. I believe they borrowed some from Brooklyn. The first cop—"Say Buddy, here's my story and of course here's my card etc. etc. To make a real long story short, sir, give that guy at the door, collecting passes, the wink and get me in. Ha! Ha! he says, I tried to work that with a couple friends of mine but now they're next to me. But if you go to that traffic officer, he'll fix you up. His name is Burns. He did burn. He introduced me to Capt. Post. Now, I'm sure I get fixed up, tho't I Capt. Post, (should have been Roast) sent me to the same and first cop I tackled at first, who was stationed at the door to keep people moving. Nothing doing he says, because his influence was already dead. I think I'll resign from the Policeman's Order. Gee I wish Dysart was here. I'll bet he wouldn't have gotten half as far as I did. I went across the street to the open space—where Central Park begins. No one permitted thru except on the sidewalk and I couldn't see that. The card started working again and I got thru two policeman 20 feet apart. Twenty more feet I was stopped. I don't think he was Irish. So the best I could do was 20 feet beyond the crowd—all alone, for about 20 minutes. An inspector came along and I forgot to pull the card. Maybe it isn't good in New York state. Seats were at a premium. Anywhere (in buildings) up to $25 and $30. on a harder board than that found in a circus for much less. People there since 10 in the morning. I attended two ladies who fainted and not being licensed to practice in New York state didn't make the price of a seat! Really the parade was short but I was only interested in one event—seeing the kid. Paris and London may, no doubt, have turned out stronger in numbers but after all, there's only one New York. And, boy they turned out. From the Battery to 59th street and Central Park! Lined on both sides and deep. Every window of every building on both sides and as far as the eye could see into Fifth avenue on all street leading into it—Humanity without a doubt, the greatest ovation ever given an individual, bar none.

I shall never forget that face. The sweetest, boyish face you'd ever want to look at! How modest. I'll bet he'd face bullets any day, much easier, than the praise and pomp and glory he now receives. There he rides—wondering what it's all about with an expression of Gee, I didn't do so much. And he's getting paid whether he wants it or not, not in money, but in being worshipped as the best American hero of the hour.

And if you please, I have no other motive in writing you than the expression of one's heart felt and sincere elation, who just could not resist the temptation of a New Castleite giving his mite for Lindy. I won't bore you any longer. With kindest regards, I am

Very truly yours,
B. M. Berger, M. D.

TWO MAKING ESCAPE FROM STATE PRISON ABANDON THEIR AUTO

ALTOONA, Pa., June 15.—The automobile in which Lee Barr, 24, and George D. Roberts, 29, made their escape from Rockview penitentiary, Bellefonte, Sunday afternoon, was found last night at Mountain Lake Park, two miles from Duncanville, by members of the state highway patrol. It was learned from park employes that two men who had occupied the car, after partaking of a lunch, walked away, leaving the car at the park. The motor patrolmen arrived only a short time after the fugitives had departed. Both Barr and Roberts were sentenced from Cambria county and it is believed they were headed for Johnstown, where Barr's wife lives. Roberts' wife lives at Pitcairn.

A woman is never so disappointed as when she orders a man to obey her—and he obeys.
